Principal's Message

Dear Applicant,

You have already been introduced to the vision that supports Sri Venkateswara College through the College website. Having successfully waded through the initial throes of a general admission to the college, you are now evincing a desire to be part of the residential set-up. I thank you for your interest in the College Residences and welcome you to take a preliminary glimpse of the spirit that underlines this exceptional facility.

At SVC, we believe that 'education' is a wholesome, holistic exercise and as such we strive to give a whole new meaning to the word. Coupling this basic premise with the idea of a sense of belonging to one family- the SVC family- we look at ourselves as 'care-givers.' The home that we offer to you, within the premises of the college, is a major constituent of this effort at imparting a sensitive, well- balanced education.

At SVC then, we strive to give the comforts that will provide the matrix for a full-fledged immersion in the spirit of the college and an optimum ambience for the fulfilling pursuit of both the academic and the co-curricular. The residence, in being the hub of harmonious co-existence-multicultural, multiethnic and multireligious- is representative of the SVC character .In this effort then, we make our contribution to the nature of good human beings who have inculcated the qualities of respect for others and are thus well- equipped to meet the challenges of the world.

I wish you the best in gaining access to the singular advantage of being part of this set-up.

Dr. (Mrs.) P. Hemalatha Reddy.

About the Hostel

The Sri Venkateswara College Hostel, located within the college campus was set up in 2008. It consists of two blocks, the Sri Balaji Boys' Hostel and Sri Padmavati Girls' Hostel. Here we strive to give the comforts that will provide the matrix for a full-fledged immersion in the spirit of the college and an optimum ambience for the fulfilling pursuit of both the academic and the co-curricular. The residence is a hub of harmonious co-existence; multicultural, multiethnic and multireligious - and is representative of the SVC character. The Hostel provides accommodations for 144 students, 72 each for Boys and Girls.

The on-campus residential facility is offered to full-time undergraduate students admitted to the first year; 24 each in the Boys and Girls Hostel. Only those students whose parents do not reside in or around the National Capital Region of Delhi (Gurgaon, Noida, Greater Noida, Ghaziabad, Faridabad etc.) are eligible for admission. Due to the limited availability of accommodations, admission to the hostel is granted based on academic merit. The allocation of hostel rooms is decided by the Hostel Committee. The Hostel Administrative Functionaries, in co-operation with the Hostel Students Association, work towards the efficient and smooth functioning of the Hostel. They contribute to the maintenance of a harmonious community life. The home that we offer to you, within the premises of the College, is a major constituent of the College's effort at imparting a sensitive, well-balanced education.

The Principal is the Chairperson of the Hostel Committee and the detailed constitution of the Committee is given in the College website. For further enquiries and clarifications, the Wardens Dr. Mukti Kanta Sukla (Boys' Hostel) and Dr. Nandita Narayanasamy (Girls' Hostel) may be contacted in the Hostel Office.
