OBJECTIVES	This course is for students who already have an intermediate level of Spanish and want to continue their learning. It deepens and extends their existing knowledge of Spanish. Students will be able to comprehend the major concepts of complex texts dealing with both realistic and abstract issues, including technical writings, as long as they are relevant to the student's area of expertise. They can converse with native speakers with enough fluency and spontaneity that communication between both sides is effortless.
METHODOLOGY	The methodology adopted for teaching comprised lectures, activities, and audio-visual. A holistic approach was utilized to ensure that the courses are learned effectively and quickly enough to be applied in everyday situations within a few days of the commencement of the courses. Apart from the recommended, few additional Spanish books were done and sent in the classes to students to enhance their grammar. Latin American authors, writers, and poets like Gabriel García Márquez, Pablo Nerida, etc. were studied to understand the language and literature. Spanish movies like El Laberinto Del Fauno, Volver, etc., and music like Macarena, Me gustas tu, etc. were reviewed to convey the idea of the Spanish-speaking world, culture, and to boost their speaking abilities. Class assessments and oral exams were used to assess students continually. Various academic activities with an interdisciplinary focus were carried out throughout the sessions to cover a broad range of topics such as culture, society, politics, history, and literary and cultural studies of the Spanish regions. The common theoretical component was taught in English. Prescribed Books Español sin fronteras II, SGEL, 1997
