Valedictory Ceremony - Involucre (4th June 2021)

Almost a year has passed since the Covid-19 pandemic turned the world of events upside down. The dramatic shift to virtual events created all sorts of new challenges for planners. With most of the activities happening online, INVOLUCRE conducted the Valedictory ceremony too virtually. Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha and Dr. Kalyani Krishna are the faculty conveners while Dr. Shukla Saluja is the teacher-in-charge. Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha drafted the proposal for the event and invited the speaker. The prominent speaker, Professor Rupam Kapoor from the Department of Botany, University of Delhi spared time out of her busy schedule to address the young generation. The virtual lecture scheduled on 4th May, 2021 was succeeded by a Valedictory ceremony. The event was scheduled on Google meet platform, coordinated by team Involucre. It started by taking blessings from maa Saraswati. The moderators Mansi Rao & Aalokita Kesarwani then invited our Principal, Prof. C Sheela Reddy to inaugurate the event. The event saw a participation of 100 people.

Our guest speaker was Prof. Rupam Kapoor who is an eminent mycologist. She gave a highly informative and enriching talk on mucormycosis and its prevalence in the covid-19 pandemic. The talk was followed by the valedictory ceremony conducted by Himanshu Gautam, President at Involucre, wherein he commemorated and acknowledged the team members of Involucre. The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha. The moderators concluded the event by asking everyone to turn on their cameras for a snapshot.
