1. Background:

A Webinar was organised on 7th January 2022 by 'Involucre', Botanical Society, Sri Venkateswara College. Prof. Krishnendu Acharya, Department of Botany, University of Calcutta, was the speaker and delivered a talk on "After Graduation: Be an Entrepreneur". "आहार-Surplus for you, Surprise meal for them", the community outreach program initiated by the Department of Botany, Sri Venkateswara College, was highlighted in the beginning of the event. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the event was held virtually on the Google Meet platform. The event commenced at 3 PM and concluded by 5 PM. The students of B.Sc. (Hons.) Botany course and other related courses participated in the event. Around 100 participants attended the event. Our principal, Prof. C. Sheela Reddy and Vice Principal, Dr. S Venkat Kumar graced the occasion with their august presence during the event.

2. Reception and Event:

The event commenced with invocation of Saraswati Vandana, followed by an introduction to the Botany Department of Sri Venkateswara College and its journey from foundation to Diamond Jubilee year by Dr. Kalyani Krishna, Convener. Then, Respected Principal greeted the 'Involucre' team and warmly welcomed the Guest Speaker, Prof. Krishnendu Acharya. She also spoke about the significance of entrepreneurship in India. Thereafter, Respected Vice-Principal addressed the gathering and shared his considered views on the differences between a businessman and an entrepreneur and emphasized setting up of new and innovative start-ups. Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha, Event Coordinator, informed about the toolkit for "आहार:Surplus for you, Surprise meal for them", the community outreach initiative of Department of Botany. Subsequently, Dr. Shukla Saluja, Teacher-in-charge, Department of Botany apprised about the track record and achievements of the Guest of Honour and invited him to address the students. Prof. Krishnendu Acharya thanked the Department of Botany and specially Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha, Co-Convener for organising this talk. He then delivered an interactive and encouraging talk on "After Graduation: Be an Entrepreneur". He gave a brief overview of the depleting economic situation worldwide and how entrepreneurship is opening the doors to numerous job opportunities that can sustain thousands of families. He elucidated on the various aspects of entrepreneurship that are not restricted to expertise in sciences only but also incorporate the knowledge of various other fields as well. He shared his research about the laboratory instruments and soil supplements which he has created at half the price from those available commercially and the same can be utilized to promote organic farming. He enumerated several entrepreneurship offers that could provide multiple jobs for the masses, which include the development of Polyhouse systems, roof top organic farming in urban areas, and production of microgreens and mushrooms. His research has provided a platform for farmers, even blind people, labourers, and many such people who had the determination to fulfil their vision. His lecture was followed by a question answer session in which students and teachers of the Department participated enthusiastically. The toolkit for "आहार-Surplus for you, Surprise meal for them”, the community outreach initiative by the department of Involucre was highlighted. This initiative under Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha is focused on spreading awareness about the need to reduce food wastages domestic/ commercial level and linking restaurants/ large scale kitchens having surplus food on daily basis with NGOs dedicated to providing food to needy people. Proposing Vote of Thanks, Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha expressed gratitude to the Guest of Honour for his illuminating talk which would certainly guide the students in making a suitable career decision. Dr. Kalyani Krishna and Dr. Pooja Gokhale Sinha concluded the event by thanking all present and making the event a grand success.

Prof. Krishnendu Acharya, our chief guest addressing the audience

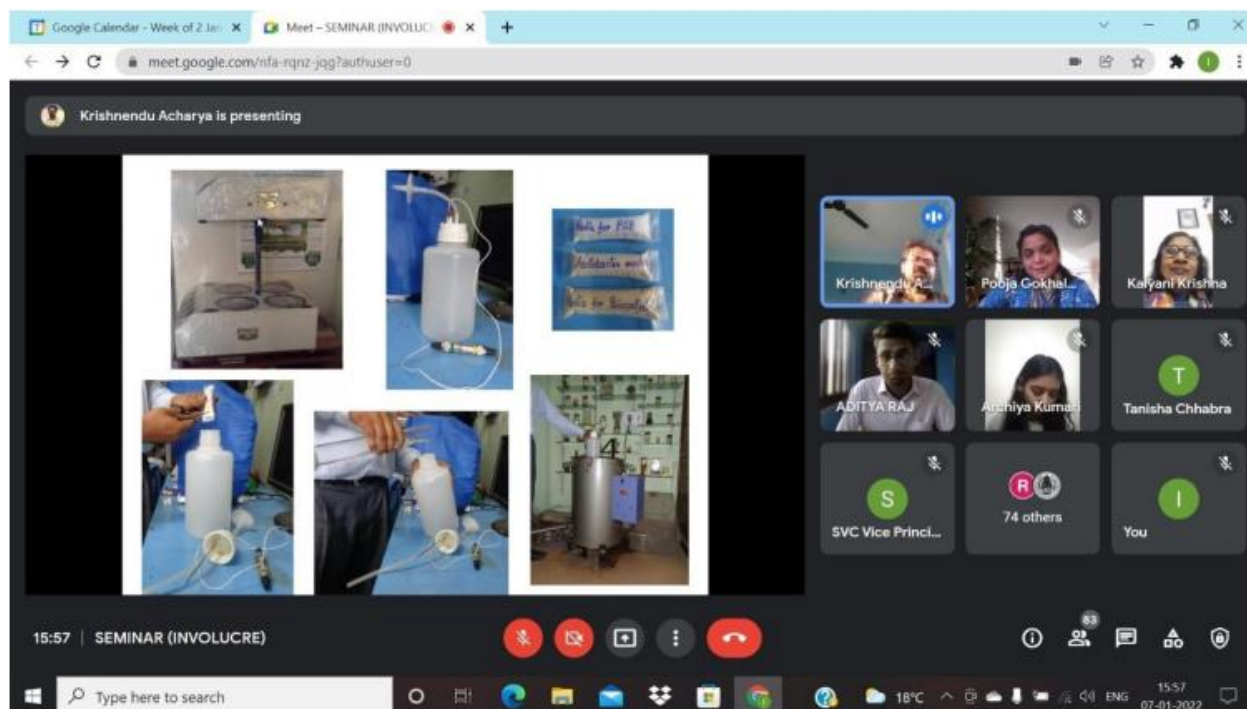

Prof. C. Sheela Reddy, the Principal of Sri Venkateswara College, addressing the gathering

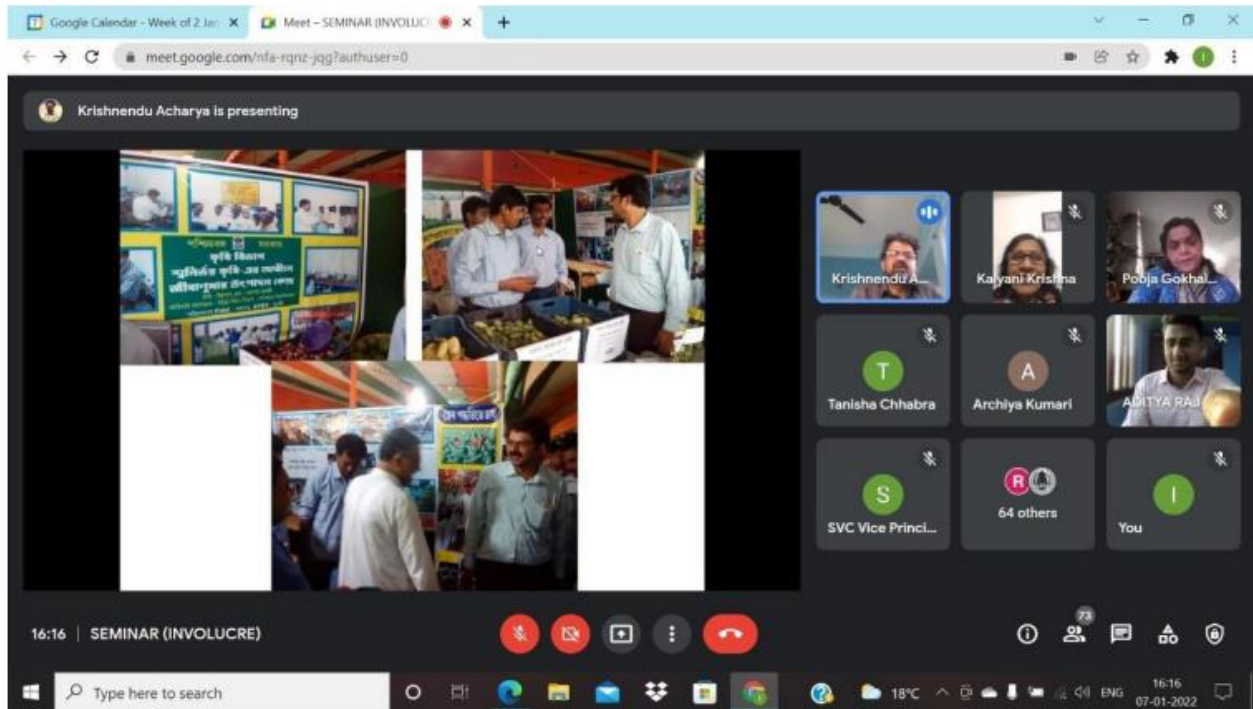

Dr. S Venkat Kumar, the Vice-Principal of Sri Venkateswara College addressing the gathering and enlightening the students about entrepreneurship

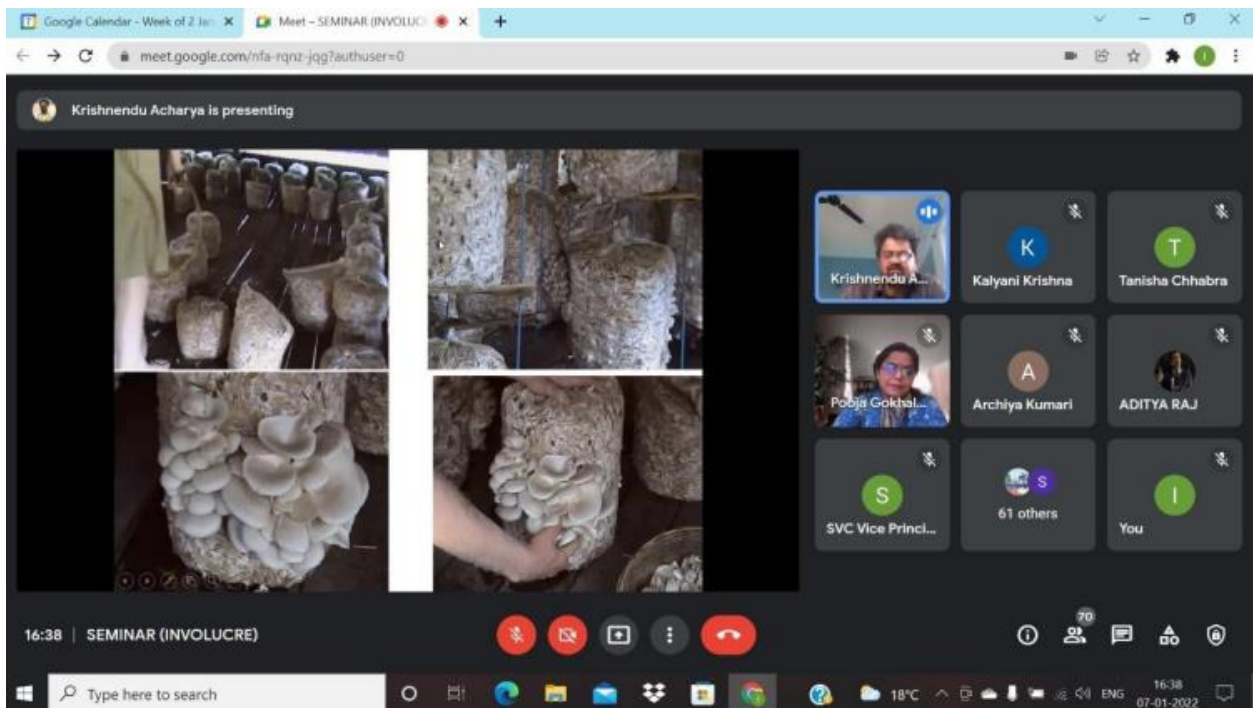

The online session was favoured by the audience. The event was thought-provoking, inspiring and suitable considering the current situation. It was evident that the lecture piqued the audience's interest as many questions were raised at the end. The audience consisted of the college's experienced staff and inquisitive students.

3. Future scope:

In spite of the event being conducted virtually, a positive response was observed. Involucere, the botanical society at Sri Venkateswara College has conducted many such sessions to spread awareness and disseminate valuable knowledge among the masses. It has done so in the past and will continue to do so in the future.
