Respected student,

The Commerce Association is delighted to share the first video of the series.

If you are interested in pursuing a career in auditing, taxation, or accounting one should definitely go in for the CA course. It helps one to have a keen understanding of how organizations work through finances.

CA is a worldwide recognized profession. Have a look at what the alumni have to say about the same!

This one is for those who always try to think out of the box and don't want to fit into preconceived societal notions. One can explore the plethora of opportunities that might ignite the fire within one. To the nonconventional thinkers - we've got you too. Ranging from fashion, travel, content creating, photography, and film making to working in NPOs and making a social impact.

Check out what our seniors would like to say about the same.
