REPORT OF THE “BI-ANNUAL EVENT, RIWAAYAT, 2023”

The Extension Society, operating under the Department of Commerce at Sri Venkateswara College, University of Delhi, orchestrated an enlightening speaker session and an engaging competition on November 8, 2023 (Wednesday), held at the college seminar hall. These events marked the closing of the 'Bi-Annual Event: Riwaayat' and attracted enthusiastic participation from society members and a sizable audience of 87 participants.

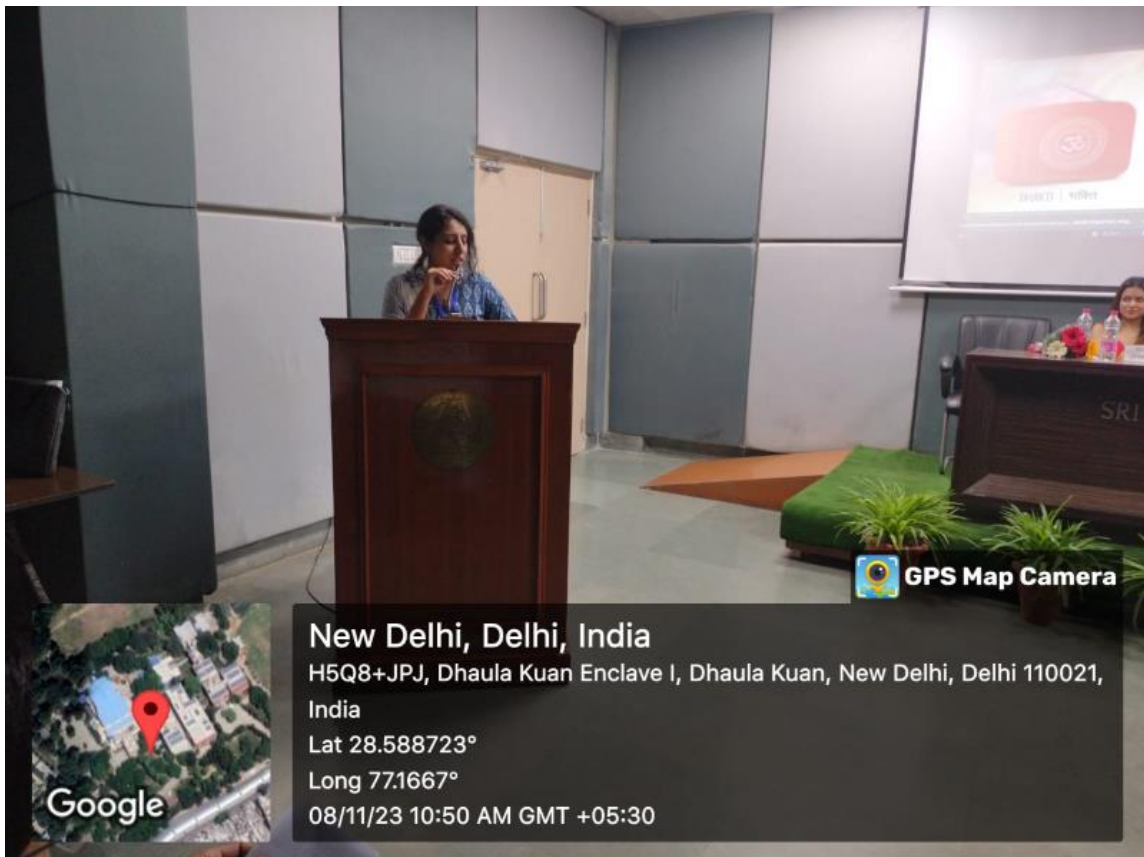

This year's rendition of the 'Bi-Annual Event: Riwaayat' radiated the essence of Diwali, signifying the triumph of knowledge over ignorance. The celebrations commenced with a compelling session led by Riya Upreti, the esteemed CEO and Founder of Fobet. Known for her influential presence on social media and her thriving entrepreneurial journey, Riya not only shared her remarkable experiences but also emphasized the pivotal role of self-confidence and mental well-being in the realm of entrepreneurship.

Following this enlightening discourse, an enthralling social case-solving competition took the center stage. A diverse group of participants from various colleges, totaling 23 individuals/ 8 teams, actively engaged in addressing the prevalent issue of Substance Abuse within the community. Through compelling PowerPoint presentations, participants offered innovative solutions, followed by in-depth Q&A sessions with the judges.

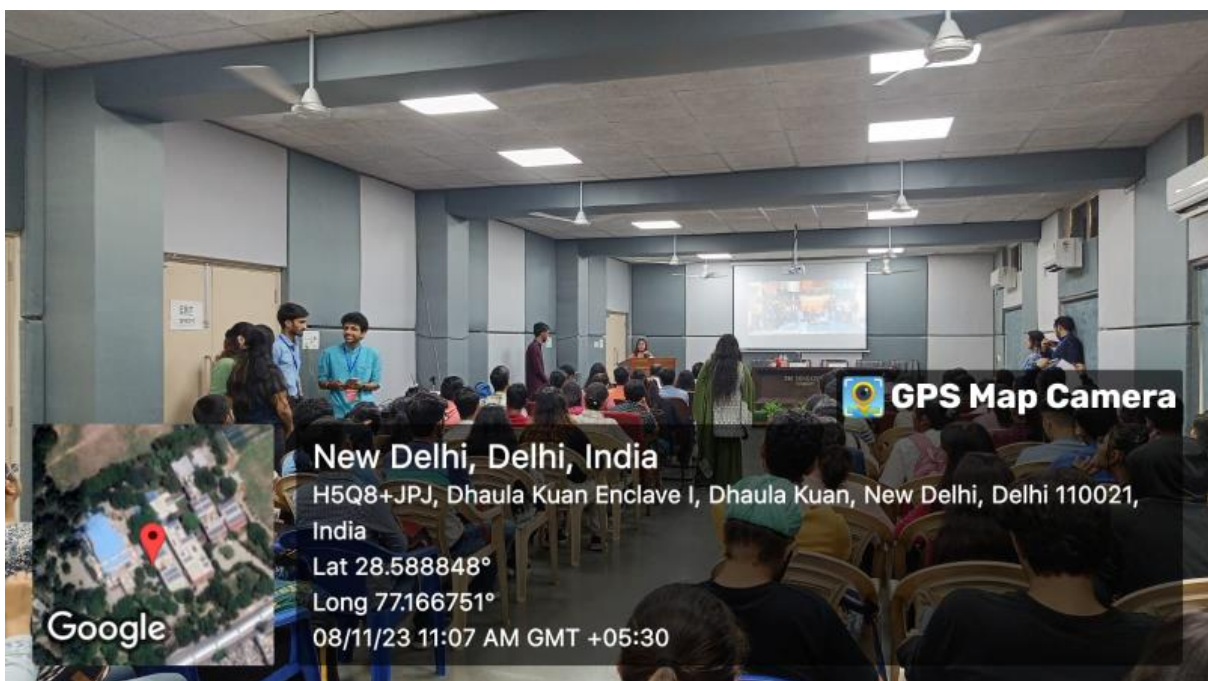

The indispensable guidance and support from Dr. Sindhumani Bag, serving as the Convener, and esteemed faculty members, including Mr. Ajit Singh, Dr. Arpita Kaul, Dr. M. Rama Naik, and Dr. P. Chengalrayulu, significantly contributed to the success of these thought-provoking activities.

The session and competition concluded successfully, exhibiting our dedication to stimulating meaningful discussions and fostering constructive solutions within our community. The collective efforts showcased our commitment to embracing knowledge and implementing positive change for a brighter future.
