Report by the Convenor

On 18th September, the E-Cell conducted an informative orientation session designed to offer a comprehensive introduction. This session aimed to immerse students in the society's core values, initiatives, and opportunities for personal and professional development.

The orientation included engaging activities and interactive games, fostering a sense of camaraderie and teamwork among participants. These activities were carefully designed to enhance communication skills and promote collaboration among the members.

Overall, these events not only equipped students with valuable knowledge about ASCEND but also inspired them to become active participants in the society, paving the way for their future involvement and success within the organization.
