“The third session by Vipul sir was academic oriented and he gave more emphasis on research work and suggested on completing most of the research in India before going abroad for studies. And again he mentions the need to having grasp over the subject.”

Priyanshu Karan

History Hons.

First Year

“Deeply grateful to my department for organising the Alumni Talk Series. The speakers eloquently guided us on various career paths one can pursue after studying History. The 4 days were extremely fun and enriching for all the students. - Vipul Dutta, Priyanka Kale, and Vishrut Dinesh reinforced my faith in the fact that History students have a plethora of career options to choose from.”

Shreya Moudgill, BA (Hons.) History, 1st Year

“The Alumni Talk Series was extremely insightful for me and all my classmates. Dr. Vipul Dutta passionately spoke of his research work and his journey of studying at Venkateswara, JNU, and later King’s College, London. All the 4 speakers spoke very fondly of their memories of the college and the history department. To think that these 4 alumni who are pursuing such prestigious vocations were once upon a time students just like us is very inspiring. I learned a lot through the wisdom imparted by my seniors in this talk series.”
