A report by Akshat Ayush, President History Association, 2022-23.

After two weeks of preparations, the first event hosted by the department of history was the screening of the period-war drama movie, "Dances with Wolves" starring Kevin Costner, Mary McDonnell, Tantoo Cardinal, and Graham Greene, among others.

The event was on the 21st of October, 2022, a Friday. It was exclusive to the students and faculty under the department of history. The movie screened was chosen from an expertly selected number of movies. "Dances with Wolves" narrates the story of its white American protagonist breaking free of the shackles of cultural misrepresentation and propaganda-induced paranoia through his interactions with the Sioux tribe, amid a war. The movie was selected for its portrayal of Native American culture, intercultural interactions, culture shock and the American Civil War, among other subplots. Its plot and representation of events give valuable insights into developing historic sensitivity and critical review, especially in the face of Eurocentric perspectives, a skill valuable to a student of history.

The screening begins at 10:10 am to a warm audience. The viewers were taken to the movie and showed keen interest in its plot and events. For cinematic purposes, certain historic plot points were oversimplified. Organisers made sure to pause at intervals and fill the gaps, to provide context to the events. The audience were patient through these sessions and the three-hour-long movie. Snacks were distributed as refreshments to keep everyone comfortable. The movie concluded at 1:15 pm, followed by an interactive session with the teachers, where members of the audience could put forward their queries and opinions on the movie. There was a vote of thanks, which concluded the event successfully.

The efforts put into organising this event are highly commendable, especially that of the members of the history association, who took great care of the intricacies and requirements to build up a great platform. The success of the event is a result of their sweat. At the end, a group photo was taken to commemorate the event.
