REPORT ON KHOJ-I- KHAZANA: THE TREASURE HUNT EVENT

EVENT HEADS- JAYANTI CHOUDHARY AND NISHCHAL AGRAWAL REPORT SUBMITTED BY- JAYANTI CHOUDHARY, SECOND YEAR

As a part of the department's annual fest, Legacy, the department organized "KHOJ-I-KHAZANA"- a treasure hunt event under the supervision of two event heads on February 17, Friday, from 1- 2:30 pm in the college campus. The event had around 25 enthusiastic participants from various colleges across Delhi University. The treasure hunt was a team event where students participated in groups of 3-4 individuals. The hunt was simple- each team was supposed to follow the clues to reach the final winning spot. The clues were about various spots in the college campus itself

There were 7 teams, all from different colleges among which the team of Miranda House emerged as winners as they managed to solve all clues and received cash prize worth Rs. 1500/-. The event was conducted smoothly and successfully with the help of the event heads, volunteers, participants, support staff and most importantly the faculty, whose guidance made this event a huge success.

LEGACY 2023

POSTER MAKING COMPETITION

Date Of The Event: 17, February, 2023

Venue: Rock Garden, Sri Venkateswara College

Number of Participants- 10

The History Department of Sri Venkateshwara College organised its annual fest LEGACY'23. Various events were organised under it including Rang-e-Bahara- poster making competition which attracted a large number of participants from different colleges. The main theme of the competition was CULTURAL TOURISM THROUGH INDIA in which the participants were provided various states of India and were asked to represent the various elements of the respective states through their innovative ideas on paper. At least 10 participants took part ranging from other colleges and also from other departments of Sri Venkateshwara College. The event took place amidst an open environment in the rock garden of the college where participants were exposed to beautiful aspects of nature. Each and every participant gave their best and we congratulate each one for their participation. We congratulate Saswat Yadav from Ram Lal Anand College for getting the first place, Megha Shyam from Rajdhani College for being the first-runner up and Garima Joshi from Sri Venkateshwara College for being the second-runner up. To conclude, Rang-e-Bahara was an event of both fun and enjoyment. It helped to connect students from various colleges and created a great informal atmosphere during post-COVID times.

REPORT

The Annual Fest - Department Of History

A report by Sameer Kumar Jha (History student)

Legacy-2023

The Department of History, Sri Venkateswara College successfully organized its annual department fest - Legacy on 17th February, 2023. This year's theme for the annual fest was 'Jashn-e-Hindustan : An Indian Cultural Symphony '.Continuing with the idea of starting the day with the Dr. Neeraj Sahay Memorial lecture, this year Dr. Najaf Haider was invited to deliver his lecture on 'The Monetary Economy of India in the Eighteenth Century '. Dr. Haider, a very experienced professor of Medieval and Early Modern History at the Centre for Historical Studies, JNU elaborated upon many important points in his lecture. He highlighted how there were different existing mediums and materials used in the trade. There was a maintained list showing the shifts in the prices of different commodities which was visible in the texts of the economic department of medieval Mughal administration as highlighted by Professor.

It was an interesting lecture followed by an elaborate Q/A session with the students and faculty. This was followed by different events organized by the department attracting huge participation from different colleges of the Delhi University circuit. Justujoo- an India quiz competition witnessed a special attraction from the quizzers across the college and university and at the end three teams secured top three positions in the final round.

Rang-e-Bahara : a poster making competition was conducted on the theme Cultural Tourism through India. Participants were given different Indian states and the final works showing their creativity was worth seeing. A treasure hunt 'Khoj-e-Khazana' was also organized where participants were divided into teams comprising 3-4 members. Team from Miranda House won the competition. With this an online photography competition 'Nazara-e-Dilli' was organized where participants exhibited their capture of this beautiful city's architectural diversity.

After lunch, cultural performances celebrating the rich diversity of India filled the evening with joy. Under the able guidance of the whole faculty, the contributions of the volunteers and council with the support of college administration this one day fest was successfully completed.
