REPORT

New Delhi, 1 December 2023. On Friday, the seminar hall of Sri Venkateswara College (SVC) was lightless for all attention was on the screen. The History Department of SVC hosted a movie screening of the epic biographical drama film "The Last Emperor", based on the life events of the last Manchu ruler of China, Puyi. The event commenced with a brief background of the historical context of the movie by the department students. The movie, in all its essence, was a cinematic marvel. Tracing the Son of Heaven's (as the sovereign was known then) ascent to the throne at the very young age of three in 1908, his abdication by the Nationalist government, the Japanese invasion and the establishment of the People's Republic of China, the movie brilliantly shows Puyi's struggles, his greed, his sorrow and every other emotion that a person goes through. After a fifteen-minute interval with refreshments, students again held their seats and immediately took a deep dive into the past. The movie screening truly was an amalgamation of fun, thrill and of course, knowledge.
