Brief Information About the Activity (Criterion No: V and V11)

Topic/Subject of Activity	Scholarship programme for the economically disadvantaged girl students of Sri Venkateswara College(10 in number) sponsor: World Brotherhood Organisation
Objectives	World Brotherhood Organisation as a charitable organisation engages in social welfare activities. One main agenda is to promote literacy among economically disadvantaged girls. Objective is to encourage and motivate them through providing financial support. World Brotherhood Organisation announced a scheme for grant of educational scholarships, in support of 'Beti Bachao Beti Padhao' Campaign of Honourable P.M of India.

Methodology	We identified bonafide eligible girl students from our college according to certain prescribed criterion. The girls had to furnish proof of their economic status. The other criteria is they should not be availing financial assistance from some other organisation/ scholarship.
Outcomes	To help and motivate girls to pursue their studies and achieve their goals in life. Through scholarship these girls benefitted financially, which made them confident and motivated to continue with their higher education.

 Reel

Dear Sir/Madam,

Please refer to our earlier communications whereby we submitted that the application from eligible students is required to be submitted to us by the respective institute latest to us by 1st Sep 2017. It has now been decided to extend the date of submission of such applications by 16th Oct 2017. However annual family income criteria would remain the same i.e Rs.2.40 lac. But the recommending Institute/Authority would enclose copy of one of the following certificate duly verified by them:

1. Income certificate from concerned MCD Councillor of the area or
2. Such income certificate from concerned MLA or
3. Similar certificate from concerned Member of Parliament or
4. BPL (Below Poverty Line) certificate issued by authorised authority.

You are aware World Brotherhood Organisation (Regd.), an international, voluntary, non-profit, non-political organisation founded in 1999, took upon itself the motive of working for the humanity as a whole, irrespective of caste, creed or religion. The organisation is engaged, through discreet efforts, in the charitable as well as social welfare activities since its inception:

Literacy is the key element for the successful life and education is the most powerful tool to develop it. Education is self-empowerment that imparts power of hegemony to the individual and a sui generis status in the society. Unfortunately, financial constraints sometimes suppress one's talent in life.

To cater the financial needs of underprivileged class for education and with a view to motivate their girl child to undertake her post-school education, World Brotherhood Organisation (Regd.) has pronounced a scheme for grant of educational scholarships, in support of 'Beti Bachao Beti Padoo' campaign of Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, the detailed guidelines of which are enclosed with this communication.

Through this communication, we request you to identify the bonafide eligible girl students from your institution, who are not availing financial assistance/scholarship from any other agency, for this scholarship and forward their applications for the academic year 2017-2018 to the President, World Brotherhood Organisation at the above-mentioned address. We are sending a few Scholarship Application Forms with this letter which should exclusively be used for the students of your institution. A Xerox copy of the Form shall also be treated as valid application.

The remaining terms and conditions of criteria of selection of applications would remain the same. However maximum of 10 eligible applicants per Institute may be considered for Scholarship. The Institute would also ensure that the applicant is not getting any such scholarship from any other agency. College Authority/recommending Institute may include this aspect in the 'Verification Certificate From the College/Institute' format.
