What were your key takeaways from the event?

13 responses

The whole event was important. I got to know so many things but my main takeaway from this event is that gender policy is very important in order to ensure equity and equality between men and women. As it provides equal opportunities to both men and women (LGBTQ+ community), it makes policies and programmes by keeping gender consideration in mind to promote gender equality.

Dedication and hardwork towards the goal

We learned from the experience of our seniors. Also came to know pros and cons of freelance journalism.

Yea, I gain a lot of things that we never known

Knowing about the experience of being in a media sector with political science background

The key takeaways if put into simple terms is simplicity is the ultimate sophistication. Even after achieving so much the guests were very Grounded.

discussion and possibilities to strengthen the Indo-Pak relation, and everything revolving around IR specifically

ROO-BA-ROO DAY-1

Speaker: Mr. Hargun Aiden

Topic: India and Pakistan Trade Relations: A room for peace or constant resistance

On the 20th of September 2021, the Department of Political Science organised the second edition of its annual Alumni Meet called “Roo-Ba-Roo”. The speaker for the first day was Mr. Hargun Aiden, an alumnus from the batch of 2015, who is currently working as an International Consultant with International Trade Centre (UN/WTO) based in Geneva, Switzerland. The event was hosted by Madhur Chhabra who began the Alumni meet by inviting the Teacher-in-charge, Dr. Jita Mishra for addressing the audience as well as introducing the speaker who had been their student in the past. This was followed by the principal ma’am, Prof. C. Sheela Reddy’s speech wherein she thanked the alumnus for gracing the event and being there to guide the students of Political Science with his experience. Mr. Hargun Aiden gave an alumni lecture on the topic “India and Pakistan Trade Relations: A room for peace or constant resistance” followed by a career guidance session. In the lecture he covered the India-Pakistan trade relations from the period of 1947-49 to the contemporary times. With the help of a comprehensive presentation, graphs and case studies, Hargun sir elaborated on the complex relationship between India and Pakistan and how their economic relations have evolved over the years keeping in mind their political relations and the security situation. He discussed certain important agreements like the SAPTA, the trade implications of the terrorist activities in light of the Pulwama Terror Attack of 2019, the relevance of trade between both the countries during Covid-19 and certain initiatives taken by India and Pakistan to overcome the trade barriers. In order to further facilitate the discussion, he elaborated upon the case studies of ASEAN, European Union, USA-West Asia and India-China in terms of economic cooperation.

The lecture was followed by a short career guidance session wherein Hargun sir talked about his experience as a student at Sri Venkateswara College and how his affinity towards development studies led him to pursue a Masters at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva, Switzerland (IHEID), followed by his career with the United Nations. Hargun sir also talked about his new venture called “The Team Humanitarian” which is an initiative for mentoring students for their masters abroad along with guiding them for a career with the United Nations and other INGOs. This was followed by an enriching Q/A session wherein the questions covered both the aspects of the Speech by Hargun Sir. The event was concluded with the formal vote of thanks delivered by the Vice-president of the department, Pragya Pandey who thanked the alumnus, the event coordinators and the audience for making the event a success.

ROO-BA-ROO DAY-2

Speaker-1: Ms. Sumedha Pal

Topic: Role of Language in Media and its representation

Speaker-2: Ms. Abhiruchi Chatterjee

Topic: Gender in Public Policy

On the 22nd of September 2021, the Department of Political Science organised the second segment of the second edition of its annual Alumni Meet called “Roo-Ba-Roo”. The speakers for the second day were Ms. Sumedha Pal, a master’s graduate from Cardiff University’s Journalism school in Political Communication, specialising in digital communications, currently a journalist based with alternative platform NewsClick and Ms. Abhiruchi Chatterjee, Development Consultant specialising in Gender and Public Policy. The event was hosted by Vidisha Sharma, who began the Alumni meet by inviting the Co-Convener, Dr. Haokam Vaiphei, for addressing the audience and also welcoming the alumni speakers. This was followed by the Vice Principal sir, Dr. S. Venkat Kumar's speech wherein he elaborated about his keen interest in learning different political ideologies and also discussed about the scope of political science in contemporary times. He further greeted the alumni speakers and praised and thanked them for taking out time to acquaint the student audience with their experiences.

Ms. Sumedha Pal gave an alumni lecture on the topic "Role of Language in Media and its representation". In her speech, she elaborated on how the way we read or hear shapes our perception of things and also influences the formation of policies and the functioning of the system. She further went on to discuss the sliding press freedom index in India and also how volatile a situation becomes for most reporters. The need to distinguish between true and false news, the rise of alternate media platforms offering different narratives, boosted by the digital era were equally discussed. She also emphasized the need to increase women's representation in the media world so that newer and more comprehensive reporting can be served, breaking out from the current homogenous trends of Indian media. This was followed by an enriching Q/A session wherein Ms. Sumedha adequately answered the queries and curiosities of the audience.

The second alumni lecture was served by Ms. Abhiruchi Chatterjee on the topic "Gender in Public Policy". Ms. Abhiruchi's lecture was driven by facts as she discussed the changing trends of women's participation in public spheres in India and abroad. With the help of a comprehensive presentation, graphs, and real-life projects, she provided a diverse outlook on the policymaking system. Having worked across policy think-tanks, civil society, and international development agencies such as UN Women and UNDP, she shared her experiences of working on the field with and for people from different backgrounds and how this profession excites her. This was followed by the boastful Q/A session.

The event was concluded with the formal vote of thanks delivered by the Vice-president of the department, Pragya Pandey who thanked the alumni speakers, the event coordinators and the audience for making the second edition of Roo-Ba-Roo a huge success.
