EXTEMPORE COMPETITION

An extempore speech is an impromptu speech where a candidate is required to deliver a speech on a given topic then and there. The topics would revolve around Women Rights and allied. You would be acquainted with the topic one minute prior to your speech.

The speech can be made in English or in Hindi. The language should be strictly formal, casteist slurs or abuses would lead to clear disqualification.

The best two speeches (1 Hindi + 1 English) will be awarded with exciting cash prizes!

6. EVENT REPORT

On the 8th of January, 2022 the Department of Political Science, Sri Venkateswara College organized an Extempore Competition celebrating 'International Women's Day'. The event was hosted by Kirti Singh who commenced the event by welcoming everyone to the extempore and also explained the rules and time limitations of the same.

Students from all the three years of Political Science Honours were called one by one and asked to choose a number, according to which the topic was allotted to them. The topics of the extempore included various issues pertaining to women stretching from women's representation in parliament to the legalization of prostitution and many more. The participants had the option to deliver their speech in either Hindi or English.

Dr. Deepika Singh and Dr. Namita Pandey, Faculty members of the Political Science Department, were the judges for the Extempore Competition. After the students were done with their speeches, the judges and also other faculty members expressed their opinions on different women-centric topics.

Sandra Thachirickal Prathap and Amber Jain were declared as the winner of The Extempore Competition in English and Hindi categories, respectively. The event was concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Deepika Singh.
