5. Event report Attested by Event Coordinator & IQAC Coordinator

The Department of Political Science, Sri Venkateswara College organized Deja Who ? as an online event. It was headed by Annu Yadav and P. Harshvardhan. People had to send in Instagram reels mimicking popular politicians under a satirical light, highlighting key events and important issues. Defined set of guidelines were set to avoid any discrepancies. Registered entries were mailed and students did a laudable job. These reels show us the way younger generations understand politics is different, they are not just the silent spectators but active partakers. They scrutinize leaders, barring no one, assess their statements, call out and hold people accountable and the social media being an excellent source for putting out opinions to a larger audience easily becomes a concoction of these ideas and opinions. All the mailed entries looked at politics with a different lens, providing a new stance. After meticulous judgement the jury chose a winner among all the entries. The winner was rewarded with a handsome cash prize and the event was concluded. Thus, making this event a huge success.
