Re-create a book cover designing competition organized by Political Science Students' Association, Sri Venkateswara College. This competition was organized to test the creative skills of the students. Students were given three books- The India way by S. Jaishankar, the White Tiger by Arvind Adiga, and The End of India by Khushwant Singh. Students recreated the cover of the books, showing their unique ideas and excellent design skills. The book covers were designed digitally as well as handmade by students. The winners were decided by the event heads Yashika Vyas and Shreya Dadwal. The creativity and accurate portrayal of the ideas of the theme of the books by the students made the event a great success.
