Hello 🙌 Everyone! 🧑🏻

The Department of Political Science, Sri Venkateswara College, University of Delhi, as part of its annual department fest INTROSPECT 22 presents

"Journalism can never be silent: that is its greatest virtue and its greatest fault. It must speak, and speak immediately." ⚡ ⚡ ⚡

News can be defined as information about any current issue that is of relevance and interest to the people. Often said, "It can either be true or News." So to test this, we extend a competition called AAMNA SAAMNA

The contestants would be allotted a role, either of a journalist or a politician and they would have to present an articulate interview in a pair in a time duration of 5-7 minutes. They'll be provided with the details of the pair, time-slots, and a fictional crisis thirty minutes prior to their turn.

✓✓✓ Guidelines- ✓✓✓

1. Languages allowed- Hindi and/or English
2. It is advisable to dress up like a Journalist/Politician
3. The dialogue/interview should strictly adhere to the given topic.
4. Each pair will be given a time duration of 5-7 minutes.
5. Participants should join the meeting 5 minutes prior to their slot timings.
6. Use of any unparliamentary language will lead to disqualification of the individual participant. Participants to make sure to not hurt any sentiments through any casteist, racist, gender insensitive, blasphemous slurs.

5. Event report Attested by Event Coordinator & IQAC Coordinator

The competition- "Aamna Saamna" turned out to be a huge success. The contestants faced each other in a live interview over an interesting fictional crisis while being given 30 minutes to prepare their case. The event was accurately judged by Jayita Pal and P. Harshvardhan, while Tanvi volunteered for smooth message delivery and coordination. Time slots were allotted to each contesting pair who joined the Zoom meeting accordingly and were given 5 minutes to enact an interview. The judgment criteria loomed over various aspects like interrogative abilities, oratory skills, the relevance of questions, crisis management aptitude, etc. "Aamna Saamna " brought the inner politicians and journalists out of the contestants and was a treat to witness. It concluded with 2 winners each emerging out of both the categories and the verdict was accepted mutually by all participants as well.
