EVENT SUMMARY

The Department of Political Science, Sri Venkateswara College has organised a discursive academic seminar with an unbounded interactive session on the 'Gandhi and the Idea of India' on 28th September 2022, in Seminar Hall, at 10:30 a.m (Wednesday). The occasion was witness the presence of Prof. Sangit Ragi (Head of Political Science Department, University of Delhi), a renowned academician, whose areas of research include demographic change, ethnic conflict and nationalism. The event was started with the greetings by Anurag and Gargi, then Dr Santosh Kumar Singh Introduced the seminar and Prof C Sheela Reddy welcomed the speaker. It was followed by a melodious prayer offering by Aayushi and Anurag. Then Mr Ashish Thakur introduced the speaker followed by Dr Ram Kishor Yadav, Convener of Gandhi Study Circle.

Prof Sangit Ragi started with the words of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose “One individual may die for an idea but that idea will, after his death incarnate itself into thousand lights” which were appropriately conquer to the present time when India embarks its journey as a Seventy Fifth year old democracy in the world. When India celebrates Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav we all should take a moment to reflect and think about what our founding forefathers had envisioned for us and how much we have achieved it. Then referring to Mahatma Gandhi’s idea of India’s common national consciousness ‘idea of India’ and thrust for common national consciousness. At the outset, he said that Mahatma Gandhi was essentially a mass political leader, who functioned incessantly and primarily as a practitioner of democratic revolutionary politics. The Indian National Congress was his chief vehicle through which he performed as its tallest leader of course, he was a multi-splendored personality, and his areas of activities and interests were many, yet there is nuanced interconnectedness and holistic approach within them. Strategic considerations were intrinsic in his activities and ideas.

He himself was against any watertight compartmentalization for life and thought. ‘Thought’ domain fixations do little justice to the one of the greatest political talents of the world who he certainly was from these vantage point, he reflects on Mahatma Gandhi’s understanding of the ‘idea of India’ and Indian nationalism. He also talked about his views on the contemporary notion of Gandhi's idea of India and to what an extend his views are relevant in today's time.

This insightful session gave us all a bundle of knowledge and thoughts to take away from the event. Lastly, the forum opened for the interactive session for the question answers to which the speaker answered thoroughly. At the end Dr. Namita Pandey on the behalf of Department of Political Science delivered a vote of thanks to mark the end of the session.
