EVENT SUMMARY:

The alumni cum career guidance session commenced with Abhiram and Ananya Mehta giving a brief introduction of the Department of Political Science and Sri Venkateswara College. A book as a Memento was presented to the speakers Mr. Shorya Sood and Ms. Preeti Pandya by Dr. Haokam vaiphei sir. After a short description of our flagship event, Haokam sir took an opportunity to extend a hearty welcome to the speakers.

Introducing Roo-Baa-Roo which is an Urdu origin term, used to describe the meeting, is a flagship event of department of political science where sessions are conducted by established alumnus of our department in various fields, so this was the third time we were hosting it and was the first line in an offline mode.

The session was an interaction about how to celebrate the journey, hurdles, barriers and make use of each and every opportunity that we get in our lives by inspiring words of Ms. Preeti and Mr. Shourya.

During the session Mr. Shourya Sood who has completed his M. Phil from Centre of Political Studies from JNU, started with his journey and the hard work he has to face while working and studying in different institutions since childhood. He starts by inspiring words that his disability was never a challenge for him rather he took them as motivation and thrived to work much harder to accomplish his goal in his life. Talking more about his personal life he shared a lot of instances where he had to face the exclusive nature of the society towards him because of his disabilities, but he is truly an inspiration and motivation for all of us because he never left his hope and always worked with more passion to accomplish to get what he is today.

Then we had Ms. Preeti Pandya, who is currently working as a senior executive at IPAG and she shared her own journey and story of the struggle she had to face since childhood because she hailed from a village in Rajasthan which does not even exist on map even today. she was also a true inspiration for all of us because she gave a lot of knowledge about her journey, strategy and how we can build our career in different fields by pursuing political science.

They ended the session by taking up questions from the audience regarding different career options one can pursue by having political science as their subject and what all political science as a subject is, and how it can open a lot of windows for a lot of students to study abroad and pursue their dream jobs.

The session concluded with Sandra Prathap, vice president of political science students' association to formally deliver a vote of thanks, acknowledging the speakers for being available to deliver a session, extending gratitude towards Principal ma'am the college management staff, the department of Political science and the student volunteers and the audience for being patient listeners.
