REPORT

24th March 2023

10:00 AM to 3:00 PM

The Department of Sociology of Sri Venkateswara College, Delhi successfully conducted its Annual Department Fest - 'Conscience Collective' on 24th March 2023 under the guidance of the association convenor Mr Satheesh Perumalla and the college principal, Professor C. Sheela Reddy as the Chief Patron. The fest included 4 sociologically oriented competitions conducted across different venues followed by multiple cultural performances to close the event.

The proceedings began at 10 AM by welcoming the participants in the venue, Room 215 for the first competition 'Simone De Quizhour- A General Quiz'. The quiz aimed at shining its focus on social events and current affairs, covering the general history and political contexts as well. The quiz was two rounds long: preliminary and final. Teams of 2 members and lone wolves were allowed for the quiz competition.

The second event took place in the auditorium lobby in collaboration with Effulgence, the filmmaking society of the college. The event 'Sociology of Pop Culture' aimed at exploring the cultural significance of some of our most beloved fictional characters. The competition was a unique attempt to bridge the gap between popular culture and academic discourse, encouraging students to think critically about the cultural messages embedded in popular media. The judges for the event were Dr Abhijit Kundu and Ms Daisy Barman.

Simultaneously, another event "Feud Of the Great Houses" was conducted in Room 305. The event was a deliberation which brought together the major schools of thought into the battlefield to argue and put forth school-specific perspectives on sixteen major affairs of the year 2022. Each house was given 2 minutes to speak on one affair with sixteen rounds (in total) followed by a counter-argument session. The Judges for the event were Dr Urmi Bhattacharyya and Ms Garima Rath.

The final competition of the day ‘Socio Shot’ – A Social entrepreneurship case study competition, was conducted in Room 215 in association with Ascend – The Entrepreneurship cell of Sri Venkateswara College. The teams or individuals were given cases to solve and they were asked to present their reconciliations in front of esteemed judges. The students were judged in the categories of best team/individual, and runner-up team/individual based on the efficiency of their solutions.

The winners were given accolades during the closing ceremony of the annual department fest by the Faculty, Department of Sociology SVC followed by a vote of thanks from the association President. The fest was wrapped up with various scintillating performances by the students of the department.
