Since then, a number of eminent scholars have been visiting the department each year, delivering the prestigious annual lecture on a diverse range of topics.The topic of the 2017 Annual Lecture was " Politics and Marginalisation: The Sociology of Women Leaders In India ". The speaker was Prof.Amrit Srinivasan , retd. Prof.IIT , Delhi.   |
| OBJECTIVES  | To expose the students to the work and personality of eminent scholars and luminaries in the field of Sociology and Social Anthropology.To expose students to scholars of repute whose work is included in the Syllabus and discussed during classroom lectures. The interface with them makes their work more exciting and meaningful to the students.To give the students an enriching, first-hand account about research and theory and the experiences of the eminent scholars in their long, sociological journey.The Annual Lecture by Prof. Srinivasan aimed to bring firsthand contemporary analysis of "Gender" dimension of society to the students. | METHODOLOGY                                       | The scholar of eminence was invited to speak on a subject of her choice at a date of mutual convenience, and escorted to the college by a senior student. The speaker was honoured by being presented the college plaque by the Principal as well as a shawl by the department. A modest honorarium was also offered.  |
| OUTCOMES  | The Annual Lecture was followed by a discussion in which both students and teachers participated.The speaker stayed on to engage in informal interaction with the students, which the latter found very enriching and exciting.Students got to learn about the research work and experiences of Prof. Srinivasan in the field, besides meeting her in person.The speaker's analysis of the gender dimension in leadership roles in Indian society, gave a new insight into the phenomenon which was well received by the students. In the words of students, as reported in the Dept. magazine 2016-17, " we remain in awe of her resolute character and sound knowledge ".   |
