Summary

The conscience collective was a collective of everyone's efforts in the preparation, performances, or competitions. Students from all over the country came together for this department fest and presented it in the best possible way. During these uncertain times, it was reassuring to see that life always finds a way no matter what happens. After the Department President's cheerful welcome, the attendees enjoyed uplifting and melodious welcome song presented by Aditi and Ayush. Following the welcome song, Padma ma'am took over the mic and addressed the audience. She described how humans are social animals and cannot stay isolated, they need the collective. She asks everyone to make this world a better collective place and declares the fest as open. This was perfectly followed by the graceful fusion dance performances by Dharini and Neha. The attendees also jammed to the delightful music performances by Upasha and Kristy.

The logo making competition was about designing the best logo based on the title 'conscience collective'. The submissions conveyed the idea that an individual does not make sense in isolation and that coming together is essential to society.

The memes were centred around relatable themes such as masks, online classes, lockdown etc which is also known as the new normal. This competition was interesting as the new generation is addicted with social media and memes are a huge part of it. Memes can not only serve the purpose of being humorous but also convey useful messages through them.

Photostory beautifully captured how the lockdown had impacted everyone physically and mentally. However, there is a ray of hope that things will go back to normal and one will be able to go out again. It also showed how the lockdown has made people lazy in their daily life.

Prof. Subas Mohapatra Teacher In charge expressed his gratitude towards the members for putting together such a great show and lauded the creativity and innovation. He also confessed that he was sceptical about the online event being a success but was delighted beyond words to see himself being proved wrong. Besides, other professors expressed their awe and happiness for the Department for putting together this fantastic event. This was followed by the prize distribution. The names of the winners (which are mentioned above) were announced and they were congratulated for the win. Judges expressed how everyone put their best efforts and the winners were applauded for their uniqueness and thoughtfulness.
