Mentor Mentee Contact Classes (MMCC), 2020-21

Introduction

In the real world, the face of the unsung mentor can be a friend, guide, teacher, advisor, instructor, guru, coach and others. Mentors keep your best interests, abilities, skills and talents in mind, thereby helping you reach your highest potential. By providing information, guidance and encouragement, mentors can play an important role in nurturing mentee's career aspirations. Mentors have always been working behind the curtains and pushing their mentees to acquire the best. After all, every 'Arjun' needs his 'Load Krishna'!

In addition, due to the vital role of the mentor in the life of the students (or mentees), the Departments of Statistics, SVC, prepared the pool of the teachers of the department. Each and every teacher of the department assigned the students of the B.Sc. (Hons.) Statistics in the batch of around twelve students. The teachers were engaged with students through tele-conferencing, video-conferencing, text communication and others with the following objectives.

Objectives

- 1) To provide a Confidence Boost to overcome the pandemic.
- 2) To provide the career choices or associated assistance at the crucial stage of their lives.

- 2) To provide the career choices or associated assistance at the crucial stage of their lives.
- 3) To help the student to make informed decisions at each and every stage of their academic and professional quest.
- 4) To physically strengthen and support the students but also provide psychological and personal development.
- 5) To provide the information that might not really be in any book on the basis of their experience and expertise in the field.

Outcomes

- 1) Students are able to learn how to handle pandemic situations and how to focus their energy in the right direction in the sense of education and job opportunities.
- 2) Students are able to get the environment to discuss difficulties in the academic as well as professional career.
- 3) Students are able to learn and understand the practical and real life problems shared by the mentors, which will be helpful in their future.

The entire experience of the mentors and mentees during the period were fruitful and gave ideas for the future advancement for such types of programs.
