REPORT

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and Criteria VII of Sri Venkateswara College organized a seminar on the 15th of February, 2023 from 10 am to 11 am, on the topic of "Legal Awareness Session on Acid Attack". The seminar was aimed at raising awareness about the laws and regulations surrounding acid attacks in India, as well as educating the participants about the legal recourse available to the victims of such heinous crimes.

The seminar was held in the seminar hall of Durgabai Deshmukh block, which is a well-equipped venue that is suitable for such events. The speaker for the session was Mr Shuaib Khan, a Legal Service Advocate at the Delhi Legal State Services Authority (West). Mr Khan is an expert in the field of criminal law and has extensive experience in handling cases related to acid attacks. He shared his knowledge and expertise with the participants, providing them with valuable insights into the legal aspects of acid attacks.

During the seminar, Mr Khan discussed various laws and regulations concerning acid attacks in India, such as the Acid Attacks Prevention Act, of 2013, and the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, of 2013. He also addressed the participants' queries and clarified any doubts they had regarding the legal aspects of acid attacks.

Following the seminar, a street play on acid attacks was performed by the ICANDOIT Theatre Group. The play was a powerful portrayal of the devastating effects of acid attacks on the lives of the victims and their families. It aimed to sensitize the participants to the issue and encourage them to take action against this heinous crime.

Overall, the seminar was a great success, with the participants gaining valuable insights into the legal aspects of acid attacks in India. The event was a testament to Sri Venkateswara College's commitment to promoting social awareness and responsibility among its students and staff.
