REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE CONSTITUTED BY THE UNIVERSITY GRANTS COMMISSION TO FRAME GUIDELINES TO CURB THE MENACE OF RAGGING IN UNIVERSITIES/EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Constitution of the Committee

The University Grants Commission was made one of the respondents in a Public Interest Litigation case filed in the Supreme Court of India by the Vishwa Jagriti Mission highlighting the adverse impact of ragging of freshers in educational institutions all over the country. During the hearing of the case held on 16th July 1999, the learned Judges had indicated that it would be appropriate if the UGC takes a more pro-active view in the matter and frame guidelines with regard to combating the menace of ragging in the universities and other educational institutions. Accordingly, the UGC constituted the Committee to frame the guidelines in the matter.

Introduction

The word 'ragging' means the acts of teasing, taunting, playing a practical joke upon someone or holding comic parades and other activities during certain period of a college term to raise money for charity. Ragging has therefore, both positive and negative manifestations, Ragging could be considered positive if it is done within decent limits and if: It aims at raising funds for charity, it helps ease the pen(~up tensions of modern students without harming anyone, it helps freshers to shake themselves out of inhibitions and inferiority complex and to smoothen their angularities, it helps dispelling the tendency among newcomers to remain isolated it is fun which is enjoyable by all, including the freshers, But over the years the word 'ragging' ceased to denote the healthy practice it used to be and has acquired more negative connotations and notoriety. Nowadays 'ragging' may include ; Display of noisy, disorderly conduct, teasing, excitement by rough or rude treatment or handling, indulging in rowdy, indisciplined activities which cause or likely to cause annoyance, undue hardship, physical or psychological harm or raise apprehension or fear in a fresher, or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such a student will not do in the ordinary course and which causes him/her shame or embarrassment or danger to his/her life. The Karnataka Education Act, 1983 (Karnataka Act No. 1 of 1995) Section 2(29) defines ragging as: "causing, inducing, compelling or forcing a student, whether by way of a practical joke or otherwise, to do any act which detracts from human dignity or violates his person or exposes him to ridicule or forbear from doing any lawful act, by intimidating, wrongfully restraining, wrongfully confining, or injuring him or by using criminal force to him or by holding out to him any threat of such intimidation, wrongful restraint, wrongful confinement, injury or the use of criminal force" It is generally observed that such perverse forms of ragging is more prevalent in professional colleges and institutes mainly because of large number of students staying in hostels.

Forms of ragging

Ragging is found to take the following forms (the list is only indicative and not exhaustive)

Contd Page...2/...

Crisp orders

- to address seniors as 'Sir',
- to perform mass drills,
- to copy class notes for the seniors;
- to serve various errands,
- to do menial jobs for the seniors;
- to ask/answer vulgar questions, ;-f • •
- to look at pornographic pictures to 'shock the freshers out of their innocence';
- to force to drink alcohol, scalding tea, etc.,
- to force to do acts with sexual overtones, including homosexual acts;
- to force to do acts which can lead to physical injury/mental torture or death,
- to strip, kiss, etc.;
- to do other obscenities
- It can be seen from the above that most of them, except the first few, constitute perverse forms of ragging.

Causes for ragging

The main causes for indulging in ragging are:-

Eagerness of seniors to show off their power, authority, superiority, An attitude of backlash: a "do-unto-others what others did to you" (similar to mother-in-law Vs daughter-in-law syndrome); Importance the seniors get in the initial stages of admission by helping and guiding the freshers for various things in the absence of or ineffectiveness of institutional mechanism to help the freshers at that point, resulting in the freshers getting indebted to seniors and thereby feeling compelled to do their biddings.

Vulnerable locations for ragging

Ordinarily, places which are most vulnerable for ragging are: Hostel blocks and messes, Vacant class rooms. Canteen, Stadium or playground, Student activity centres, [ ]-1 ' Bus stands.

Causes for the increase in the incidence of ragging and ineffectiveness of measures against it :- Among the main causes, one can cite the following: -

The powers and moral authority of the Wardens and other functionaries have eroded over the years, as many of them may not be committed to their work, but take up such responsibilities for the sake of perks attached to those offices; Lack of interest and involvement in such matters among majority of faculty members;- , . Fear that the Head of the Departments and others may be pressurized later on for withdrawal of complaints or for revocation of the orders of punishment; Fear that they and/or their family members may be harassed and victimized. It must be admitted that most of these causes are the direct result of politicization of educational institutions and the resultant erosion of standards of behavior. If there is no political interference, the concerned authorities will be able to take effective measures to curb ragging.

Positive actions

Appropriate committee (s) may be set up including the course-in-charge, student advisor, Warden and some senior students to actively monitor, promote and regulate healthy interaction between freshers and senior students. The student-faculty interaction may be increased to involve the students in all matters of the institution, except in actual processes of evaluation and in faculty appointments.

Such involvement will make the students feel that they are responsible partners in managing the affairs of the institution, and the credit due to the institution for good worthy performance is due to them as well. Freshers' welcome parties may be organized soon after admissions by senior students and the faculty together, where they can be properly introduced to one another. Such parties can bring out the talents in the freshers without the elements of indecency normally occurring during ragging. Mass participation has its own built-in checks, as an over zealous person could often be prevailed upon by sober elements. In the presence of the faculty, even the miniscule of misguided students, who are otherwise compulsive raggars, will be forced to behave properly and not cross the limits of decency. Exhibiting their talents in the open will help the freshers to shed their inferiority complex, remove their inhibitions and bring out the best in them.

Incentives

Incentives and rewards for those who actively participate in measures for curbing the menace of ragging may include the following :-

The institution should give due weightage to the contribution made by Wardens and other functionaries to the institution's administration when assessing them for higher posts. The perks for the Warden's and all such functionaries should be suitably enhanced to attract committed persons for these posts. The perks may include providing accommodation in the campus, telephone rental charges and suitable honorarium. Raised to the status that is their due and with increased powers and perks their ability and commitment to the cause of curbing ragging can be expected to be enhanced. The Institution may work out allocating some marks or grade for those students who actively helped the institutions in curbing-ragging. This may be added to the total at the end of the programme, which might change the final division to be recorded in the certificate. "Good conduct" and, "Not found indulging in any form of ragging" during the semester must also be one of the elements to be graded for sessional evaluation during the third and fifth semesters (i.e during the first half of second and third years).

Punishments

The following could be the possible punishments for those who are found guilty of participation in or abetment of ragging. The quantum of punishment shall, naturally, depend upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the Disciplinary Committee or the court of law.

1. Cancellation of admission.
2. Suspension from attending classes.
3. Withholding/withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits.
4. Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation process.
5. Withholding results.
6. Debarring from representing the institution in any national or international meet, tournament, youth festival, etc.
7. Expulsion from the hostel.
8. Expulsion from the institution for periods varying ;rom 1 to -1 semesters
9. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any ether institution
- 10 Fine up to Rs 25,000/-.
11. Rigorous imprisonment up to three years.
12. While the first 10 types of punishment can be awarded by the appropriate authority of institution itself, the last punishment can be awarded only by a court of law.
