About the NLIU Cell for Law and Technology (NLIU-CLT)

National Law Institute University (NLIU), Bhopal is one of the premier legal institutions established in the year 1997. The NLIU Cell for Law and Technology (NLIU-CLT) was established at the National Law Institute University in October 2019 under the mentorship of Dr. Atul Kumar Pandey, the faculty-in-charge.

The Cell was established with the aim to create a platform to raise awareness about the interface of technology and law. The depiction of the societal effects of technology in science fiction and other media had a huge impact on the creation of the Cell.

When it comes to the intricate interactions between technology and legal policy, the Cell wants to be ahead of the curve. It has been constantly taking efforts in engaging in a range of activities to maintain pace with its vision.
