Add on course on
Introduction to Wildlife Conservation-1

The college has decided to offer an add-on course on "Introduction to Wildlife Conservation-1" with effect from the academic year 2023-24. Students of Sri Venkateswara College pursuing degree programs in any subject may apply. Selection will be done on the basis of keen interest in the field of conservation. Certificates shall be awarded by the Sri Venkateswara College based on the evaluation during the course upon successful completion of the same.

Number of seats: 40 (minimum)

Duration of the course: 10th February 2024 to 10th May 2024. Classes will be offline and online, and will be held on the weekdays.

Fee structure: INR 4000

Highlights of the Add on course:

1. The students will be introduced to the multi-faceted world of wildlife conservation and how it functions.
2. The course will provide knowledge on the philosophy and theory of conservation, train them in data collection and analysis.
3. The students will gain in depth knowledge on research writing and designing.
4. Concept of community and its interaction with the wildlife will be introduced along with focus on wildlife trade, human-wildlife interactions, poaching, etc.
5. Finally, we will discuss the effect of climate change on wildlife and how it influences its conservation actions.

The eligible candidates may submit the online pre-admission form along with a requisite course application fee of INR 200 (Rupees two hundred only).
