REPORT

The Manya Group hosted the seminar, which included student involvement. The seminar began with the speaker, Shilpi Talwar, describing why every study abroad applicant should pursue international education. She described the eligibility criteria, years of education, and popular programmes chosen by Indian students in the United States.

The topic was then taken up by Ms. Raji Shankar, who described the distinction between the GRE and the GMAT. She focused her attention on the kids' perplexity about which test to take. She went over the structural and small distinctions between the GRE and GMAT. She also explained the key aspects to consider while making a decision.

She closed with insightful GRE and GMAT questions.
