REPORT

T.I.M.E organized an engaging seminar that actively engaged students. The event commenced with a captivating presentation by the speaker, Mr. Amit Poddar, who delved into the essence of problem solving. He astutely demonstrated how problem-solving skills permeate our daily lives and are fundamental to effective decision making.

He then elucidated the key elements of successful interviews, emphasizing the crucial aspects of stress management and maintaining a resolute perspective. Drawing from his vast expertise, he explored various case studies that encapsulated scenarios of ambiguity, imparting valuable insights on how to navigate such challenges. The discussion also encompassed the essential parameters to consider when tackling guesstimates and underscored the significance of making valid assumptions.

The seminar reached its pinnacle as participants were presented with intriguing guesstimates, challenging their analytical acumen. He presented the ways in which guesstimates could be tackled. Through these exercises, students were encouraged to think on their feet and apply their problem-solving skills in a real-time setting.

To ensure a comprehensive understanding of the topics covered, a dynamic question-and-answer session followed. Participants actively interacted with Mr. Amit Poddar, seeking clarification and gaining deeper insights into the intricate aspects of problem solving and guesstimates. The seminar organized by T.I.M.E not only provided a platform for students to enhance their problem-solving prowess but also empowered them with valuable knowledge and techniques essential for excelling in interviews.
