Acknowledgement

I extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Principal of Sri Venkateswara College, University of Delhi, for their visionary leadership and unwavering support of the Sri Venkateswara Internship Program For Research In Academics (SRI-VIPRA).

I would like to extend my regards to the SRI-VIPRA team of Sri Venkateswara College, whose dedication and meticulous efforts in allocating students to this program have been instrumental in its success. Their commitment to fostering academic excellence and research opportunities for our students is truly commendable. The guidance of the Principal and the SRI-VIPRA team's diligent work has significantly contributed to creating a robust framework for this internship program, ensuring that our students receive valuable research experience in various academic disciplines.

The students have shown remarkable dedication in exploring the intricate relationships between caste, religion, and expressions of dissent within the Indian socio-political landscape. Their research has been characterized by a commitment to objectivity, nuanced analysis, and a deep respect for the diverse perspectives encountered throughout their study. I extend my heartfelt congratulations to all involved for their hard work, intellectual curiosity, and the courage to tackle such a multifaceted and sensitive topic. This project stands as a testament to the calibre of our undergraduate program and the potential of our students to contribute to important societal dialogues.

I look forward to the continued success of the SRI-VIPRA program and the positive impact it will have on our student's academic and professional futures.
