BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACTIVITY ( CRITERION NO. - ):

TOPIC/SUBJECT OF THE ACTIVITY	Bollywood Quiz for the PWD students teamed with the volunteers of the Equal Opportunity Cell, Sri Venkateswara College.
OBJECTIVES	Our goal was to break the aperture and synthesize a strong rapport between PWD and general students which was due to the effect of pandemic and had exacerbated the problem of loneliness that PWD students have to go through by providing the opportunity to PWD students for testing their knowledge of Bollywood industry and cordially interact with volunteers.
METHODOLOGY	We assigned 3 volunteers to each PWD student to team up for the quiz few days prior to the event. This allowed the volunteers and the PWD students to interact with each other via online platforms and indeed establish a strong rapport which became quite evident in the quiz itself. The Bollywood quiz contained 7 rounds, each having a set of questions that each participating team had to answer. The team scoring the highest points was declared the winner.
OUTCOMES	Interactive session enabled PWD students to cordially discuss with volunteer students and be part of mainstream without any awkwardness and reap the benefits of their Bollywood understanding with rewards.

Summary report

Our society, Equal Opportunity Cell, which strives to provide a platform for PWD students to freely interact and develop a feeling of togetherness with other students, took the initiative of organizing a Bollywood quiz for PWD students teamed with general students with an aim to bridge the gap between PWD students and others by making them cordially interact and enjoy.

Bollyquiz was organized by EOC on 11th of March, 2021 for the interaction and for testing the crazy minds of our PWD students and volunteers of Sri Venkateswara college. It was attended by 10 PWD students and 30 volunteers and they were split into a total of ten teams. The quiz comprised of total six rounds and also one tie breaking round.

Each round contained a set of questions and each team had to answer to the question put to them. The sequence of putting up questions went clockwise and then anti-clockwise in the subsequent rounds to ensure fairness to all the participating teams. The quiz masters were very interactive, supportive, and zestful and ensured that no unfair means were used in the game.

In one such round, songs were played and the PWD students had to guess the name of the song along with movie name, and this contained round of discussion between the PWD student with his/her teammates boosting interaction. And in another round, teams had to guess the movie name from the given clues in the form of certain relatable pictures. It was made compulsory for volunteer participants to explain the images and clues to the PWD students and then they had to think, interpret, and guess the movie and marks were allotted on the basis of their efforts of explanation.

We choose to conduct the Bollywood quiz because films as a medium of expression, unites everyone together. We tried to put as many fun elements as possible to make it zestful along with testing of knowledge and the event was a grand success evident from the fact that not only PWD students participated heartily in the quiz but the amount of interaction and playfulness that we observed amongst these students and the other team members was astounding.
