NOTICE & LETTERS-

Disability need not be an obstacle for success.

Greetings from the Equal Opportunity Cell, Sri Venkateswara College

Mr. Dipendra Manocha and Ms. Rummi K. Seth were driven to set up Saksham Trust with a belief that persons with visual impairment or low vision can do everything with only one change – the way things are done.

To turn this vision into a reality, the founders have been continuously running programmes in the field of inclusive education, assistive technology, accessible books and cultural inclusion.

A workshop on Empowerment of Differently abled under the Accessible India Campaign is being organised by Equal Opportunity Cell of Sri Venkateswara College in collaboration with the Saksham Trust on 27th of June this day is indeed a special one as today's the birth anniversary of Helen Adams Keller.

Chief Speaker:

1) Mr. DIPENDRA MANOCHA (Founder of SAKSHAM TRUST)

About Speaker:

Dipendra Manocha sir has worked as an advocate for people with print disabilities for the past 25 years. He is the Founder and Managing Trustee of Saksham and worked as Director (Developing Countries) with Daisy Consortium, a network of over 100 global organisations registered in Zurich, Switzerland. The organisation is dedicated to ending the book famine for people with print disabilities. He is also President of the National Association for the Blind in Delhi. He has received numerous awards, including a National Award for contributions to community development in the area of disability and two President's Awards.

With immense pleasure and excitement, EOC invites you all to attend this workshop.

SUMMARY:

On 27th of June, Equal opportunity cell observed the commencement of an interactive webinar for differently abled students with our speaker Mr Dipendra manocha in honourable presence of our principal mam with our topic Empowerment of Differently Abled Under the Accessible India Campaign. The workshop began with the zest and zeal, with a brief introduction about the speakers for the programme queued by the Saraswati Vandana and enlightening words by guest for the event and honorable principal mam Prof. C.Sheela Reddy. Following up was principal mam addressing the audience about she being constantly supporting the students of equal opportunity cell for their dedication for the work and bringing such interactive workshops to lend a helping hand for pwd students, with her kind words and showering of blessings for the workshop to be a successful one, then our president of the society spoke few words and welcome the respected authorities of the day, who have managed to give us some time from his busy schedule the event was than officially took over by Mr. Dipendra manocha sir who the founder of Saksham trust who is our speaker for the event,. He thoroughly introduced students to working and motto of the trust .basically they were driven to set up Saksham Trust with a belief that persons with visual impairment or low vision can do everything with only one change – the way things are done. To turn this vision into a reality, the founders have been continuously running programmes in the field of inclusive education, assistive technology, accessible books and cultural inclusion.

This talk will revolve around the discussion of the following-

- 1) Accessible Education, and Upcoming technologies and devices for the upliftment of the visually impaired.
- 2) Opportunity in Sports, Accessibility and Navigation devices.
- 3) New opportunities witnessed in foreign that should be incorporated in India too
- 4) Vision of Saksham Trust and their role in the upliftment of differently abled.

Next up was question and answer session wherein students showed up their active participation via interacting thoroughly and getting all their doubts answered by the speaker. The workshop was a hand on approach implementing the skills, Students can choose from and providing an insight into diverse topics and motivating students to explore new areas of interest. With a vote of thanks for the speaker for the works and our respected principal mam, it ended formally.
