REPORT

The Biannual Youth India Foundation Panel Discussion, aptly named "Momentum," unfolded on 12th February at seminar hall and Auditorium Lobby, creating a dynamic platform for engaging dialogue and insightful discussions. The event aimed to build momentum among the youth, inspiring them to contribute actively to societal progress and foster positive change.

The distinguished panel featured esteemed speakers, each contributing to the vibrant discussions.

Key Theme Discussed:

1. Momentum through Innovation: The panel discussed how innovation, when embraced with momentum, can be a driving force for positive social impact and change.
2. Building Momentum for Environmental action: Dakh Sethi's emphasis on the urgency of climate action led to discussions on how individuals can contribute to sustainable practices and environmental conservation.
3. Momentum inclusive Education: Ekta Khurana's insights highlighted the importance of creating momentum in providing inclusive and accessible education to all, thereby reducing educational disparities.
4. Community Driven Momentum: Siddharth Ralli's narratives inspired discussions on the potential of community-driven momentum in fostering positive change at the grassroots level.

Audience Engagement:

"Momentum" witnessed active participation from the audience, as attendees engaged in lively discussions, posed thought-provoking questions, and expressed their commitment to building momentum for positive societal change.

Conclusion:

The Biannual Youth India Foundation Panel Discussion, under the theme "Momentum," succeeded in creating a dynamic and inspiring atmosphere. The event not only provided valuable insights from the esteemed panelists but also motivated the youth in attendance to actively contribute to societal development.
