Report

The Orientation session was for spreading knowledge about Youth India Foundation among the students on campus. Throughout the orientation, students were informed about the initiatives of YIF, working of the organisation, learning potential in the society and were also engaged in interactive activities. Students were explained with the recruitment process and were informed about the important dates for the same. Followed by the orientation session we had a speaker session wherein a bunch of speakers from Ulster's University explained about the learning methodology at their university and discussed importance and potential of courses offered by the university. The main focus of the discussion was Business Management. Students who attended the session gained perspective about the career opportunities and future of jobs in the related field. The speaker from the University stressed on how students there were gained from YIF.
