To Whomsoever it may concern,

It gives me great pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Pranay Agrawal because he has been a great asset for Learn with Leaders as a business development manager.

Pranay has led several partnership talks single-handedly with sincere determination not only because he had the resources and the skill set to do so, but also because he knew that the high school student community will benefit from such partnerships and collaborations. Learn with Leaders started with the mission to provide a range of learning opportunities to students but, with Pranay's consistent efforts, we now aim to find hidden gems – the most brilliant young students around the world. Through my interactions with Pranay, I have realized that he strives to bring about change in the community by addressing crucial global issues.

As Business Development Manager, he has on-boarded several partners for Learn with Leaders such as Harvard Student Agencies, NASSCOM, Crimson Education, and Wadhvani Foundation, and has ensured that these partners inspire the students and help them build a progressive career. During these months, Pranay has displayed a consistent knack for building strategic partnerships, securing sponsorships, and selecting judges and mentors for Learn with Leaders programs. This has helped us achieve the mission and vision of our initiatives. Apart from this, he has also taken charge of and seamlessly handled the training and knowledge transfer of the incoming team members. His approachable personality enhances learning for others.

Given his visible contributions, Pranay became the de facto point-of-contact for me. He has been extremely proactive, and he takes initiative in other functional areas including partnerships, content strategy, and overall management. Pranay brings a unique perspective and focus on strategized result-oriented actions based on his prior knowledge and experience, and his drive to provide opportunities to high school students. Pranay has the ability to dream, to believe, and to make others believe in themselves and their dreams, which he is doing with utmost dedication at Learn with Leaders.

I am proud to say that he has worked conscientiously and tirelessly towards turning our vision into reality. I wish him every success in life, and I am sure he will stand out in his future endeavours. If further information is needed or if there are any enquiries regarding my recommendation, please feel free to contact the undersigned at +91 9717999612 or gunjan@learnwithleaders.com.
