BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACTIVITY

TOPIC/SUBJECT OF THE ACTIVITY	Webinar on “Sex Work: Anti Caste and Decolonial Narratives”
OBJECTIVES	The webinar was held with an aim to understand the various narratives relating to sex work. Through the webinar, special emphasis was put on the anti-caste and legal narratives, which were discussed at length. A special segment to understand the ground realities of sex work was also held.
METHODOLOGY	The webinar was conducted by the Women’s Development Cell in collaboration with the Women’s Development Cell of Miranda House. OUTCOMES	The webinar sparked a discussion on the different aspects of sex work. The speakers shed light on how sex work and caste identities are interlinked. There was also a discussion on how Indian law views sex works which is usually as a victim or criminal. This leads to sex workers being denied their constitutional rights. 6. Event report Attested by Event Coordinator & IQAC Coordinator

The Women's Development Cell of Sri Venkateswara College, in collaboration with the Women's Development Cell of Miranda House, organized an insightful webinar on "Sex Work: Anti Caste and Decolonial Narratives" on 5th February 2022. The speakers for the session were Dr Anuja Agrawal, Dr Suman Dash Bhattamishra, and M.s Sultana Begam.

The moderator extended their warm welcome to the attendees and went on to introduce the three esteemed speakers.

Our first speaker, Dr. Anuja Agrawal, started the discussion by addressing the relationship between caste and sex work through an anthropological perspective.

She presented her argument by highlighting three main issues- the link between the caste system and sex work, stigma associated with it, and the familial aspect of sex work in the Indian context. She concluded that sex work, as seen through a caste narrative, has various forms, and there are several ways to engage in such a conversation.

Dr. Suman continued the discussion by attempting to contextualise India's contemporary legal sex work narrative by providing the decolonial legal narrative and its ramifications. She discussed how laws enacted during the British era criminalised sex work and, as a result, how sex workers are portrayed in today's legal framework as either victims or criminals by the state. She then discussed the four approaches to sex work: complete criminalisation, complete decriminalisation, partial decriminalisation, and legalisation, before concluding with a discussion of the intersection between caste and sex work.

Ms. Sultana Begam, Secretary at All India Network of Sex Workers shared her experience working with sex workers. The attendees learnt about the heartbreaking ground realities and struggle that sex workers endure on a daily basis. Discrimination, societal rejection, and domestic violence are only a few parts of their lives. Even basic contraception, such as condoms, are inaccessible to them. She discussed how the epidemic had negatively impacted their lives. She demanded pension for sex workers, expressed her will to destigmatize sex work, and urged the youth to work towards their upliftment. Attendees extended their gratitude and sympathized with her as she talked about her experiences.

Lastly, a vote of thanks was given by a member of WDC Miranda House to conclude the event.
