EVENT REPORT

The Annual Fest of the Commerce Association/Commerce Society (ComSoc), Department of Commerce, SVC, finally took place on April 23rd, 2024. The event started with a warm welcome to the distinguished chief guest, Mr. S. Satyanarayana, IES; Vice-Principal, Dr. K. Chandramani; Bursar, Dr. S. Krishan Kumar; Teacher-in-charge, Dr. Mamta Arora; Convenor, Dr. Vinod Kumar; faculty members of the ComSoc; the faculty members of the Department of Commerce, and the students of Commerce and other courses. The President of ComSoc, Ms. Bhavneet Kaur, graced the event with her esteemed presence and gave a warm welcome to the guest speaker and the attentive audience. The serene atmosphere was further enhanced by a lamp-lighting ceremony, accompanied by the soothing voice of Ms. Samridhhi Kapoor in the background. The President then highlighted the remarkable achievements and contributions of the Commerce Association.

After her speech, Dr. Vinod Kumar, the Convenor of the Commerce Association, took the stage to welcome the guest of honor and highlight the commendable work done by the Commerce Association and its impact on the community. Dr. Mamta Arora, the Teacher in charge of the Department of Commerce, also graced the gathering with her insightful words, sharing her wisdom and experiences.

During the Consortium event, the Vice Principal, Dr. K Chandramani, motivated the students by emphasizing the significance of such events in their academic journey. Dr. Krishna Kumar, the Bursar at Sri Venkateswara College, captivated the audience by discussing the invaluable role of gold in growing economies like India.

The moment everyone had been waiting for had finally arrived. The event's chief guest, Mr. S. Satyanarayana, took center stage to deliver a thought-provoking talk on how gold impacts the economy. He explored topics such as whether gold is an investment or savings, the reasons behind people's preference for it, and the process of currency issuance by the RBI. Mr. Satyanarayana eloquently explained how gold's liquidity makes it equivalent to currency and how investing in gold serves as a means of international diversification. He also highlighted the macroeconomic impact of gold on economic growth, providing a comprehensive perspective on the subject.

At last, the session concluded with Ms. Aastha Gupta expressing her sincere gratitude to the honorable chief guest. On behalf of the Commerce Association, she thanked the Convenor, the Teacher In-charge, and all the dedicated faculty members of the Department of Commerce. Her vote of thanks conveyed the collective appreciation felt by all attendees, emphasizing the importance of their participation in making the session a great success.

Now the various events or activities executed during two days fest are described below:

Name of the Event: Richie Rich

Date: 23rd April, 2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

"Richie Rich" was a life-sized version of the popular board game Monopoly and was the main event of the day. The participants were informed in advance and arrived at the venue by 12:30. The game had two rounds: The first round was conducted online on Unstop, where teams had to register and answer a rapid-fire round with questions of moderate difficulty. The second round was offline and held on campus. The game had five laps, and instead of rolling dice, different games were played, such as guessing the movie through emojis, naming companies starting from a particular letter, or choosing a representative to roll the dice for a team. Four teams faced each other, and at the end of the event, the winners were decided by calculating the net worth of each team. The net worth was calculated by adding the balance left of the initial sum provided to each team of $12,000 and the value of assets purchased by them.

WINNERS:

1. "MELON MUSK" from Dyal Singh College (DSC), University of Delhi

Team Members: Ms. Khushi Khemka, Mr. Shreyansh Arya

2. "Kind blade" from Hansraj College, University of Delhi

Team Members: Mr. Viplav Singh, Mr. Shanmugam and Mr. Viswanaath Shanthamani

All in all, the event was a great success with its own unique combination of games, wit and luck. Our participants had a great time and we very more than happy to host them.

Name of the Event: The Football Auction

Date: 23rd April, 2024

Venue: T-13

The ComSoc conducted its event "The Football Auction" on April 23rd, 2024. Mr. Madhav Kaushal extended a warm welcome to the arriving participants for the competition.

ROUND 1 - (Quiz Round)

In the first round, an online quiz featuring football-related questions was conducted on unstop, and 16 selected teams went to the next round.

ROUND 2 - (FIFA Penalty)

Following that, a one-on-one FIFA Penalty competition took place on a play station within the campus for the second round, with eight teams moving on to the final round. Each team was given a chance to choose the club randomly by chit picking process.

ROUND 3 - (The Bidding Round)

Participating teams bid and purchased a minimum of 11 and a maximum of 13 players from a pool of 140. Teams classified and bid on the best choice in accordance with the sum of money allotted to them. An authentic rating system was used to evaluate the constructed teams, with the team having the highest aggregate rating winning the auction.

WINNERS:

1. "Timberwolf" from Shaheed Bhagat Singh College, University of Delhi

Team Members: Mr. Shikhar Sharma, Mr. Vaikunth Mehta

2. "Big chill" from Delhi College of Arts and Commerce, University of Delhi

Team Members: Mr. Hitansh Gulati, Mr. Kanav Berry

3. "Team Dubs" from PGDAV (Evening)

Team Members: Mr. Ankush Rawat, Mr. Satvik Shailly, Mr. Tushar Nahata

The event was marked by intense rivalry as teams utilized their football expertise to engage in fierce battle of bids, creating a memorable experience.

Name of the Event: “Basics of Investing and More” by Harsh Goela, founder of Goela School of Finance”

Date: 24th April, 2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

The event began with a welcome address by Stuti Grover, the Vice President of the Commerce Association. She then introduced the keynote speaker, Mr. Harsh Goela. The Convenor of the Commerce Association, Dr. Vinod Kumar, and a faculty member of the Commerce department also greeted the students and the esteemed speaker. Mr. Goela, the founder of Goela School of Finance, then delivered an enlightening seminar on the basics of investment and more. He shared many financial instruments and stories, and discussed the reality, risks, and opportunities of stock markets, as well as the myths about real estate investments. He also explained the difference between considering gold an investment or an insurance. The speaker emphasized that in India, gold is considered as an investment, whereas in reality, it is the best hedge against inflation as gold is a currency. He further explained how different economies pump money into their system to boost growth and discussed the impact of high and low interest rates on an economy. He also emphasized the benefits of having a considerable holding period of stocks for current and aspiring traders. The seminar was truly enlightening as Mr. Goela shared his personal experiences as a trader. The event concluded with an interactive question-answer session with the students present.

Name of the Event: Panel Discussion on “Exploring the Integration of AI across Industries and Strategies”

Date: 24th April, 2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

The Panel Discussion began with a welcome address from Chaitanya Aggarwal, Joint Secretary of The Commerce Association, who introduced the panelists: CA Sunil Pathak, Mrs. Mrinal Gupta, Mr. Saurav Mishra, Rahul Lakhmani, and Dr. Vineeta Mishra. The panelists were presented with planters by the teachers of The Commerce Department. The discussion began with the panelists addressing the key challenges they encountered in integrating AI into their respective fields. Mrinal Gupta and Vineeta Mishra highlighted how AI facilitated their work while cautioning against its limitations in evaluation tasks. Saurav Mishra discussed how AI had enhanced auditing and commerce, emphasizing its inability to replace human intelligence. Sunil Pathak expressed concerns about the potential job displacement due to AI, presenting contradictory views. Rahul Lakhmani praised the benefits of AI while advocating for cautious use. The report describes the discussion as enlightening, concluding with the notion that future generations would devise their own methods to adapt to AI’s presence. The panel discussion ended with a Q&A session involving the attending students.

Name of the Event: लेन देन

Date: 24th April, 2024

Venue: Room 301, Durgabai Deshmukh Block, SVC

The event "लेन देन" was a fascinating blend of trading that took the participants on an exhilarating journey. It was an event where innovation met ingenuity, and every pitch had the potential to be a game-changer. The first round of the event took place online on Unstop. It was an engaging quiz competition that covered a wide range of topics including business, economics, and commerce fundamentals. Participants had a window of 1 hour and 30 minutes to complete the quiz, and the top teams advanced to the next round. The second round, held on-campus, began at 12:45 p.m. Ms. Kirat provided an introduction to the event, and each team received a mystery box containing products. Teams had 30 minutes to prepare their pitch for the products they received, and once their presentations were submitted, they had a total of 45 minutes to pitch their respective products. Following the presentations, the teams engaged in trading among themselves. Each team had to buy four products and sell their own four products. The team that generated the highest profit emerged as the winner. Finally, the event concluded with great excitement as the winners were announced. DMRC - 536500 from Sri Venkateswara College secured the first place, followed by Poission FC - 467700 from Hindu College in second place. The third position was claimed by Gentlemen with a score of 464200. Overall, the event was a remarkable success, leaving participants with a sense of accomplishment and satisfaction.

Name of the Event: Revive & Thrive

Date: 24th April, 2024

Mode of Conduction: Online

The Revive & Thrive was a case study competition that revolved around a hypothetical ed-tech company struggling with massive debts and trying to maintain its edge in the market. The competition presented various challenges that the company had to face. The entire competition was conducted online and consisted of two rounds. The first round was an online quiz that included basic level questions related to business, start-ups, logical reasoning, general knowledge, and more. The teams that qualified for the second round were just five. The second and final round gave the teams two days to prepare their presentation deck and submit it within a specified time window. The final round of the case competition was judged by Mr.

Charush Kumar and Mr. Udaivir, and Team Acers emerged as the winner. Overall, this event showcased the collaborative spirit and dedication of everyone involved. We hope to build on this success for future endeavors and look forward to continued progress and innovation in our field.

WINNERS – “Team Acers” from Dyal Singh College, University of Delhi

Team members – Mr. Tejas Joshi, Mr. Prashant Maurya
