REPORT

The Department of Environmental Sciences, Sri Venkateswara College organized the National Youth Parliament 2024: SVC Chapter 'Paryavaran Manthan' on 6th December 2024. The event commenced at 10:00 AM in the seminar hall, drawing an attendance of 101 students from various courses.

The event featured two pertinent topics for discussion:

1. Lifestyle, economic, and social changes linked to the conservation of the environment.
2. Plastic Treaty - India's Roles and Responsibility.

The event aimed to foster critical thinking and analytical skills through discussions on lifestyle, economic, and social changes necessary for environmental conservation. Additionally, it sought to encourage active participation in environmental policymaking, enhance public speaking skills, and educate students about India's roles and responsibilities in the global context of the plastic treaty. The event also aimed to inspire innovative solutions to environmental problems and promote interdisciplinary learning by involving students from various courses.

Students passionately engaged with these topics, delivering insightful speeches that underscored the urgency of environmental conservation and India's pivotal role in the global plastic treaty. The discussions highlighted the interplay between lifestyle choices, economic policies, social behaviors, and their collective impact on the environment. Additionally, participants examined India's responsibilities and strategies in addressing plastic pollution through international treaties. The seminar hall buzzed with intellectual fervor as students presented well-researched arguments and innovative solutions. The diversity of perspectives enriched the dialogue, making the event a significant platform for youth to voice their opinions on critical environmental issues.

The diverse range of perspectives enriched the discussions, fostering a deeper understanding of the interplay between lifestyle choices, economic policies, and environmental conservation. The event also highlighted India's roles and responsibilities in global environmental treaties, inspiring students to think creatively and propose innovative solutions. The event promoted interdisciplinary learning and encouraged active participation in environmental advocacy and policymaking. The National Youth Parliament: SVC Chapter 'Paryavaran Manthan' was a resounding success, fostering a deeper understanding of environmental challenges and the collective responsibility required to address them.
