REPORT

New Delhi, 21st March 2024. The official trip to Rashtrapati Bhavan, organized by the History Department, was a resounding success. The group, consisting of 38 students from various academic years, along with Professor Jhansi, commenced the visit through Gate No. 37. After a brief wait and the submission of phones and other electronic devices, we were escorted by a knowledgeable guide into the interiors of Rashtrapati Bhavan. Inside, we were enthralled by the numerous statues, paintings, and artworks of historical significance. The guide provided detailed explanations about the various rooms accessible to media and significant meeting halls, enriching our understanding of the Bhavan's role in India's governance. Professor Jhansi supplemented this with insights into the exterior architecture and the fascinating story behind the making of Rashtrapati Bhavan. The trip proved to be an educational endeavor, offering students a deeper appreciation of India's rich history and cultural heritage.
