REPORT

On 13th October 2023, fourteen students from the General Elective course "Polity and Society in India", semester V, embarked on an enlightening trip to the Pradhan Mantri Sangrahalaya in New Delhi. The museum, situated at Teen Murti Chowk, offered a captivating insight into the lives and legacies of India's Prime Ministers, leaving an indelible mark on our understanding of India's political history.

Objective:

The visit to Pradhan Mantri Sangrahalaya served as a valuable supplement to the General Elective course, providing practical insights into post-independent India's historical and political landscape. It effectively bridged theoretical concepts with real-life examples, aligning seamlessly with the course's sociological perspective on Indian politics.

Museum Tour:

Commencing with Jawaharlal Nehru, the museum chronologically detailed each Prime Minister's life, struggles, and contributions to the nation. Multimedia elements fostered a deeper understanding of India's political context.

Key Highlights:

-Jawaharlal Nehru: Illuminated his pivotal role in India's struggle for independence.

- Lal Bahadur Shastri: Displayed his simple belongings reflecting high moral values and a collection of his letters.

- Rajiv Gandhi: Showcased his technology vision for India.

- Atal Bihari Vajpayee: Presented the original Bharat Ratna received by him. Golden Quadrilateral, Pokharan etc.

- Shatabdi Sankalp: A special feature enabling visitors to inscribe messages envisioning India in 2047.

- Toshakhana: Showcased beautiful gifts received by Prime Minister Modi and subsequently donated to the museum.

Prime Minister Modi:

Prime Minister Modi's section provided insights into his tenure, policies, and contributions to India's development. Notable mentions include:

- Gifts Display: Beautiful gifts received by Prime Minister Modi and donated to the Toshakhana, symbolizing diplomatic relations and cultural exchanges.

- Policy Initiatives: Highlights of key policy initiatives undertaken during his leadership.

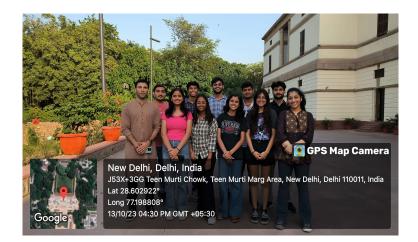

- Vision for India: Emphasized his vision for a progressive and developed India.

Conclusion:

The visit to Pradhan Mantri Sangrahalaya was an educational journey through India's political history. The museum adeptly encapsulates each Prime Minister's tenure, offering a deeper appreciation of their contributions to shaping the nation. It's an engaging and informative experience that profound admiration for India's leaders and its history.

This visit not only enriched our understanding of Indian politics but also reinforced the significance of studying and appreciating the leaders who have played pivotal roles in the country's development.
