REPORT

On 1st of October, the Department of Sociology conducted its freshers welcoming ceremony. The fresher's party commenced with welcoming words by our hosts Prity and Aarshi followed by introductory remarks from Sateesh Sir and Padma Ma'am and other faculty members of the department.

The program then moved into a series of engaging activities, beginning with the Freshers' Ramp Walk, where new students showcased their style and confidence. Following this, Kartik impressed the audience with a vibrant dance performance, while Nitin captivated with his poetry. Hanshika entertained with an energetic dance routine.

Next, the event featured interactive games, encouraging teamwork and fun among participants. Chetan delivered a performance, followed by musical renditions from Jatin, and a poetry session by Nandini. Rishita and Moin later took the stage for dance performances, while Yashvi and Rudrani shared their talents as poets and dancers.

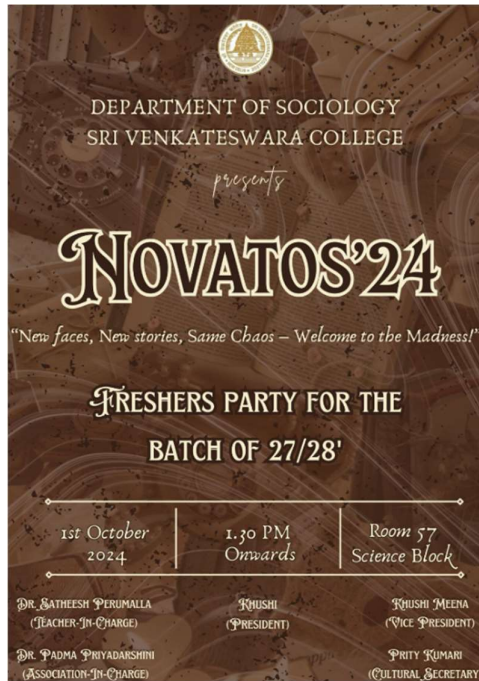

The trio of Suhana, Sea, and Rashmi provided a fun dance performance, adding excitement to the event. The title ceremony, where freshers were awarded fun titles, was another highlight, concluding the formal segment of the party. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Prity, expressing gratitude to the organizing committee, performers, faculty, and students.

To conclude, the ceremony served as more than just a welcome event; it was a testament to the department's vibrant spirit and inclusive culture. Through engaging activities, heartfelt interactions, and memorable performances, the evening created a welcoming and conducive environment for the holistic development of all students. As they embark on their academic journey, the first-year students of the department can look back on this event as the beginning of a fulfilling and enriching experience within their academic community.
