REPORT

On 29 January 2023, Brainiacs- The Data Science Hub of Sri Venkateswara College organised an enlightening seminar titled "Career Guidance on Data Analytics in Aviation." The event featured a distinguished speaker, Ms. Priyadarshini, who provided a thorough analysis of career prospects within the aviation and flying sector. Ms. Priyadarshini opened the seminar by emphasizing on the rapid growth of aviation industry. She illuminated the key factors propelling this growth, including the prominent role of data science. Next, she highlighted the unique perks of working in this sector. She provided an overview of the salaries, discussing the opportunities for extensive travel and lifestyle benefits enjoyed by the employees and their family. She mentioned the prospect of meeting various celebrities and networking with people from different fields and backgrounds. The focus then shifted to Amigo Academy, an institution that is helping aspirants achieve their dream careers in aviation. The academy's training methodology was discussed, showing the various ways in which it equips individuals with the necessary skills and knowledge to excel in this sector. In conclusion, the seminar provided a comprehensive exploration of the flourishing aviation industry. Participants left with a clear understanding of the tools and pathways available to build a career in aviation (with an emphasis on data analytics). In the end, the speaker took up questions from the participants and solved their queries. The speaker's experience and high participation by students made this event a huge success!
