REPORT

On 24th April, the NSS unit of our college organized its annual flagship event Jaagriti on the main ground, dedicated to promoting social service and community engagement among students. The event was a vibrant celebration of creativity, culture, and social responsibility, with a range of activities designed to inspire and involve participants.

One of the key attractions was the series of inter NSS competitions, including videography, photography, and debate. These competitions encouraged students to engage creatively with pressing social issues, allowing them to express their thoughts and ideas through various mediums. The debate competition, in particular, provided a platform for students to articulate their views on relevant societal topics, fostering critical thinking and public speaking skills. Cultural performances were a highlight of Jaagriti, showcasing the rich diversity of traditions while emphasizing the importance of community service. These performances not only entertained but also reinforced the connection between cultural heritage and social responsibility.

Additionally, the event featured stalls supporting local NGOs and self-help groups, offering them a platform to display their products and initiatives. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about the vital work these organizations do and to generate funds to support their efforts in community development.

Jaagriti was a resounding success, effectively engaging students in activities that promoted social responsibility and community involvement. The event not only celebrated the spirit of social service but also reinforced the NSS's commitment to fostering active citizenship and societal contribution among the college community.
