REPORT

Animals are such agreeable friends, they ask no questions, they pass no criticisms. Rightly so, NSS-SVC recognizes the role our furry friends play in our lives and have a month long dedicated event to appreciate them called 'Febpawry', throughout which initiatives such as collection drives were organized. Another addition to this year's 'Febpawry' was the webinar conducted on 'Animals too have feelings' in collaboration with Stray Relief and Animal Welfare (STRAW), India. The webinar graced by expert speakers was an eye-opener about how animals feel and how one care for them by being compassionate and showing empathy. The audience was taught about the common concerns faced by animals and how they can put in effort to better understand the needs of the animals in their community and create a harmonious environment for them where all living beings can thrive.
