5. Event Report

Global Youth India in collaboration with Global Youth SVC Chapter organized a panel discussion on 'Rights and Relativism- exploring the idea of Global Ethics' at Sri Venkateshwara College on 12th November, 2022.

The event aimed to initiate a discussion on changing ideas of rights, dynamism and impact of global village on different cultures. Dr. Shashi Motilal, co-author of books like 'Ethics of governance: Moral Limits of Policy Decisions and Human Rights' and Dr. Sandeep Tripathi, founder of the Forum for Global Studies were the key speakers to address the gathering. Professor Motilal highlighted how the idea of an ideal world heavily influenced by idealism was going against to reality where one has to address the question of responsibility, morality, power and balance of rights. Dr. Tripathi also discussed how the growing need to define our stand on the conflict between expectations, reality and ethics needs honest attention. One has to understand the reality where our position in morality is also strengthened by the power that we carry.

A space was left for the participants to deliberate on the importance of taking a clear stand by respecting the unique differences without grading different cultures.

The Q/A session reflected the positive impact the speakers had on the audience where many new aspects of the theme was covered. The essence of the event was experienced by everyone who participated in the discussion.
