EVENT REPORT

New Delhi, 25th February, 2024: Global Youth SVC chapter organised a symposium titled ‘India’s strategic adaptation: Navigating through the dynamic currents of the world order’. The symposium, by the means of the research presentations and papers, delved into the Indian foreign policy and provided fresh perspectives in light of new challenges that have come up in our bilateral relationships as well as those that face the international order.

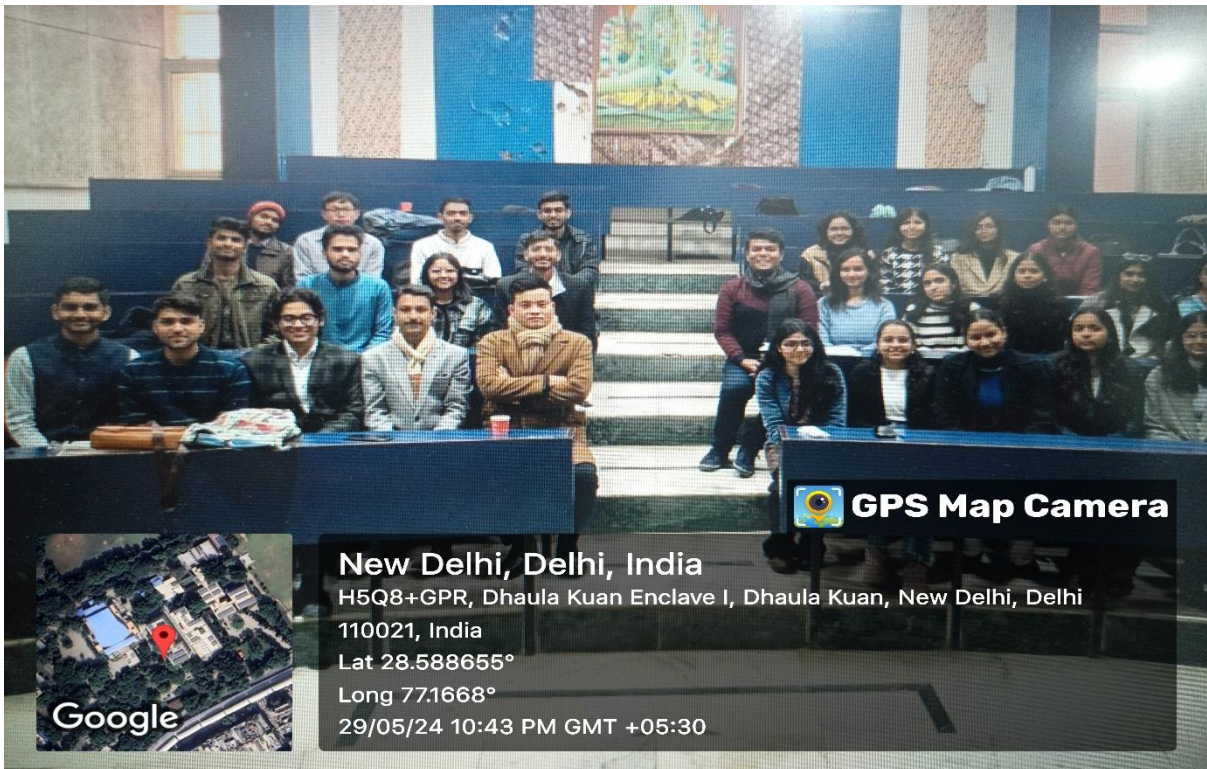

It covered a wide range of topics such as the complex relationship of India with Pakistan, analysing the fast Chinese growth and its implications on us, management of our relationships with other smaller neighbours, India’s stand on recent fresh tensions in the region, and analysing the true nature of Indian foreign policy as defensive, aggressive or a mixture of both.

Participants and audience supplemented each other viewpoints exhibiting an insightful atmosphere. The event was smoothly steered by the team of Global Youth SVC chapter. The event concluded with the constructive feedback that was provided by the judges who also underscored the events exceptional standards.
