REPORT

New Delhi, 4th April 2024. Global Youth SVC Chapter organized a discussion titled Looking from Zhongguo: The Chinese View of India and the world which was hosted in the India International Centre. Multiple students from different colleges along with professionals working in multiple fields participated in the session. The guest speakers were Amb. Shyam Saran and Dr. Sriparna Pathak.

Participants spent their time on understanding the evolution of Chinese policies along with other nuances which shape Chinese perception of the world along with the impact this has on India and the way forward for India. Amb. Shyam Saran discussed the historical genesis and evolution of this Chinese gaze which is deeply rooted in the cultural context of China while Dr. Pathak discussed the current nuances of the Chinese gaze and the impact it holds on to the world.

Additionally, the participants asked multiple questions which made the session a holistic embodiment of knowledge.

The discussion concluded with the felicitation of the guests and vote of thanks.
