The "NEP 2020 Essay Competition," an initiative of the NEP SAARTHI Committee at Sri Venkateswara College, was conducted on April 24th, 2025, in Room No. 57 of the V. Krishnamurthy Block, commencing at 1:30 PM. The competition aimed to actively involve the student body with the tenets and anticipated implementation of the National Education Policy 2020. Prior to the event, interested students were required to register via an online portal, facilitating a streamlined organizational process. On the day of the competition, registered participants convened at the designated venue, where they were provided with the necessary instructions and guidelines.

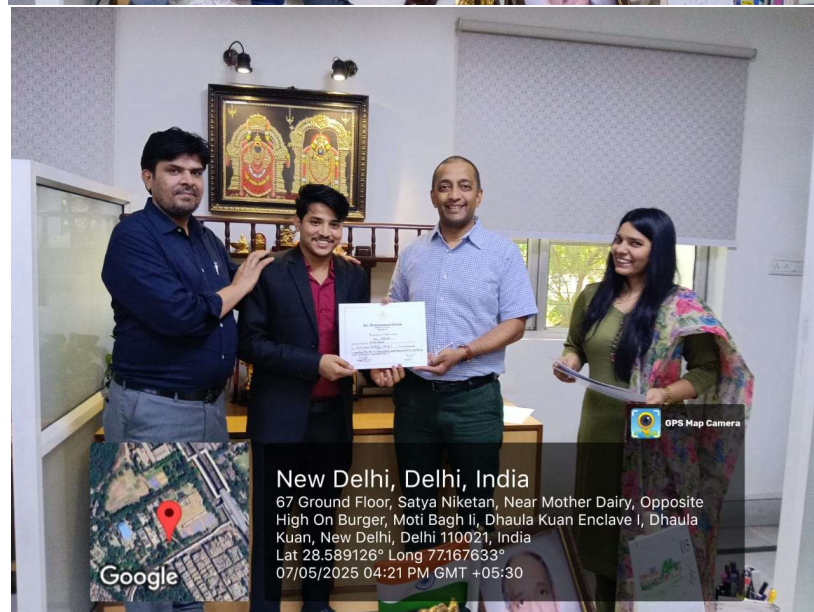

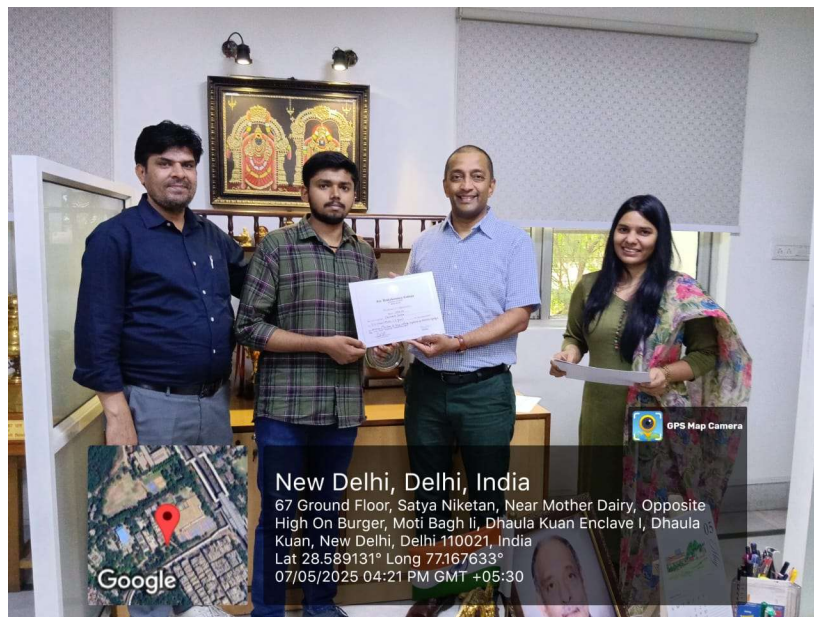

The essay writing session proceeded in a focused and academic environment. Students thoughtfully addressed the broad theme of engaging with the vision and implementation of NEP 2020, drawing upon their understanding of the policy's objectives and potential impact. The essays produced during this period reflected a spectrum of interpretations and analyses, demonstrating varying levels of engagement with the policy's multifaceted dimensions. Following the conclusion of the writing time, the submitted essays were collected for evaluation by the NEP SAARTHI Committee. The assessment process focused on criteria such as the clarity of argumentation, the depth of comprehension of NEP 2020, the rigor of critical analysis, and the originality of the insights presented by the participants.

The evaluation of the essays concluded with the announcement of the winners: Khemchand (1st Position), Shashank Saxena (2nd Position), and Anurag Kumar (3rd Position). Their essays demonstrated thoughtful engagement and a grasp of the key aspects of NEP 2020.

The competition successfully provided a platform for students to articulate their understanding and critical thinking about the National Education Policy, contributing to a greater awareness and engagement with this significant educational framework within the college community.

ESSAY COMPETITION'S WINNERS – Khemchand (1st Position); Shashank Saxena (2nd Position) & Anurag Kumar (3rd Position)
