SUMMARY-

On 13th February, 2023 the North East Students' Association organised the flagship event i.e annual fest oneness. The event started with the inauguration ceremony which was attended by Sir Hibu Tamang, IPS, Joint Commissioner of Police & Nodal Officer SPUNER. He was welcomed by our convenor and our vice Principal. The inauguration ceremony started with the welcome speech of NESA Amvi Swu followed by our convenor Prof. K. Chandramani. After that our respected chief guest Sir Hibu Tamang sir shared his words of wisdom and briefed the students about the special cell in Delhi Police for North-eastern People. The inauguration ceremony was then followed by a few performances which ended with the vote of thanks by the Treasurer of NESA, Pradyumna Borphukon.

After the inauguration, the annual fest was followed by a quiz competition "North by North-east" and a photography competition which started at around 11 am. Students from our college as well as other colleges participated.

Finally, the most awaited cultural performances began at 1 pm. The cultural performances included dances from all the states of North East India and songs from respective states. Performers from the colleges as well as other colleges participated with full enthusiasm. Other than dance and songs, ramp walk, band performances also took place. Finally, the cultural performances came to an end by 4:30 p.m.
