EVENT REPORT

Name of the event: Sanskrit Diwas
Date: 21 Aug 2026

Sanskrit Diwas was celebrated with scholarly depth and creative engagement, highlighting the richness of the language and its cultural heritage. The program commenced with a special lecture on "The Contribution of Western Scholars to the Tradition of Vedic Commentary", offering critical insights into cross-cultural scholarship and its role in sustaining interpretative traditions.

Complementing the intellectual discourse, a Poster Exhibition in the foyer visually showcased themes of Sanskrit literature, philosophy, and heritage, drawing attention to the language's timeless relevance. Interactive activities such as Spoken Sanskrit trivia encouraged participants to engage directly with the language, fostering confidence and curiosity in conversational Sanskrit.

Adding a contemporary artistic dimension, Tattoo art in Sanskrit creatively merged tradition with modern expression, allowing students to experience the aesthetic appeal of Sanskrit script in innovative formats.

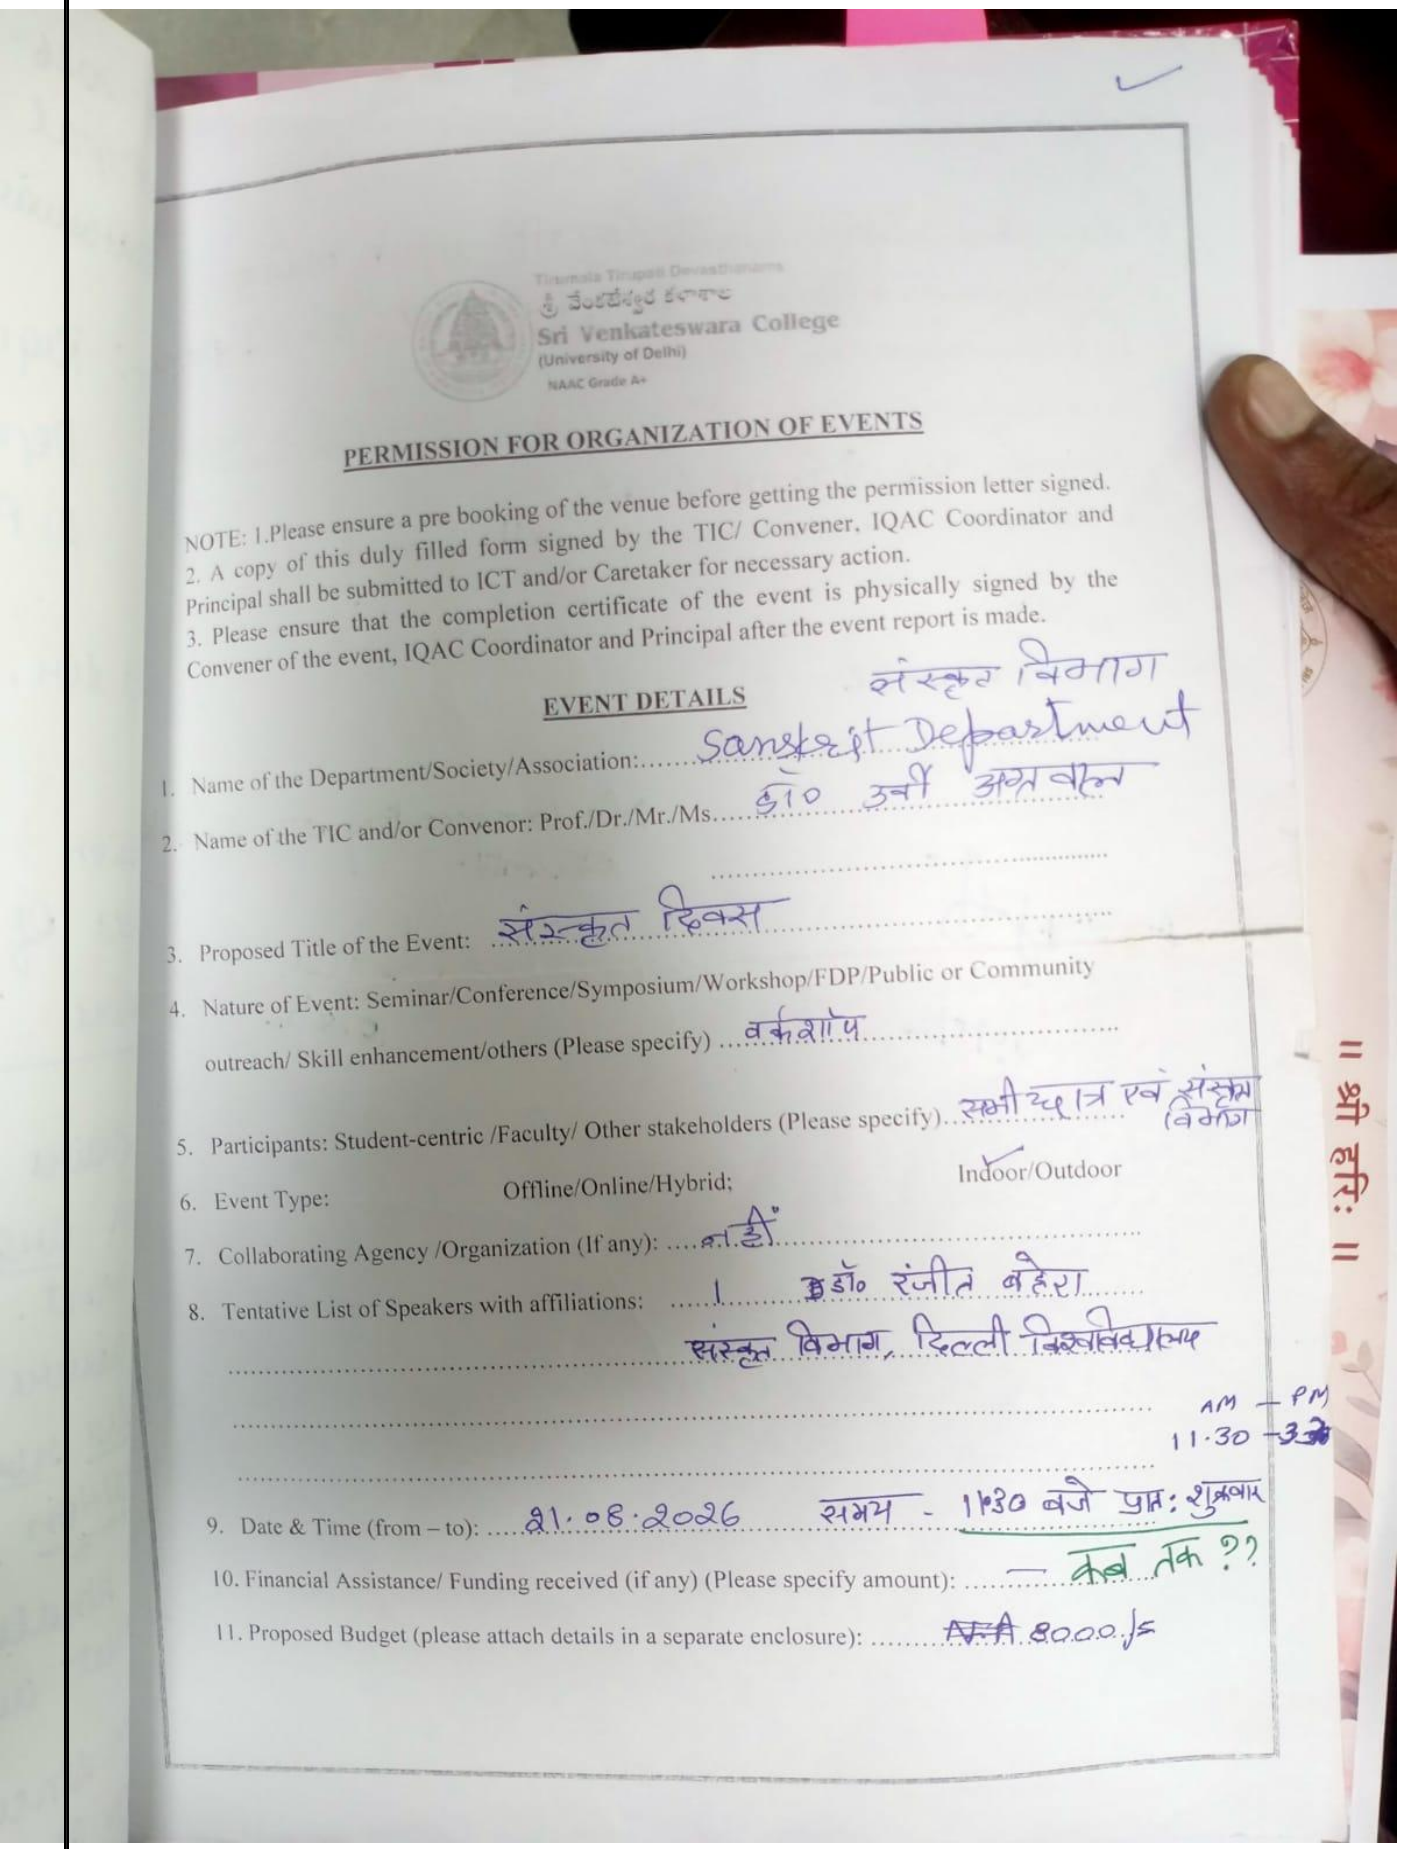

Overall, the celebration successfully combined academic rigor with participatory and artistic elements, reinforcing Sanskrit's enduring significance as both a scholarly discipline and a living cultural tradition.
